Mira Costa High School
Manhattan Beach, California

Students of Mira Costa find themselves members of a community, of a county, and finally residents of a state. That state, California, is known as

and all who live here cannot help but appreciate the richness of California's diversity, the grandeur of its scenic attractions, and the excitement of its visual contrasts.

In a very real sense, California compresses within its boundaries the scenic features of an entire continent. Seashore, desert, mountains, navigable rivers, waterfalls, landlocked harbors, farming plains, glaciers, perpetual snow, slumbering volcanoes, lakes and inland seas—all are found within the spacious outline of the state. But California is also rich in history—from the days of the conquering Spaniards to the days of the mission fathers, California holds remembrances. The gold rush, the building of the railroads, the migration West, have left living impressions upon the cities, towns, and people of California. This beauty and diversity of California we can see reflected in Los Angeles County, the South Bay communities, and most importantly in our own Mira Costa High School.

The Golden State has a climate which attracts boating enthusiasts to the shore. On the Pacific Coast from Coronado to Eureka boaters can find many harbors, sunshine, fresh air and shimmering water.

Mira Costa Has Grown from California's

Winter sunshine of California's low deserts attracts visitors seeking respite from the snow. At Salton Sea visitors enjoy year-round swimming and boating.

California grows over half of the nation's vegetables, and such a scene is common in the Central Valley.

Mira Costa, too takes pride in agriculture. Our rose garden thrives in the sun and adds beauty to the campus.

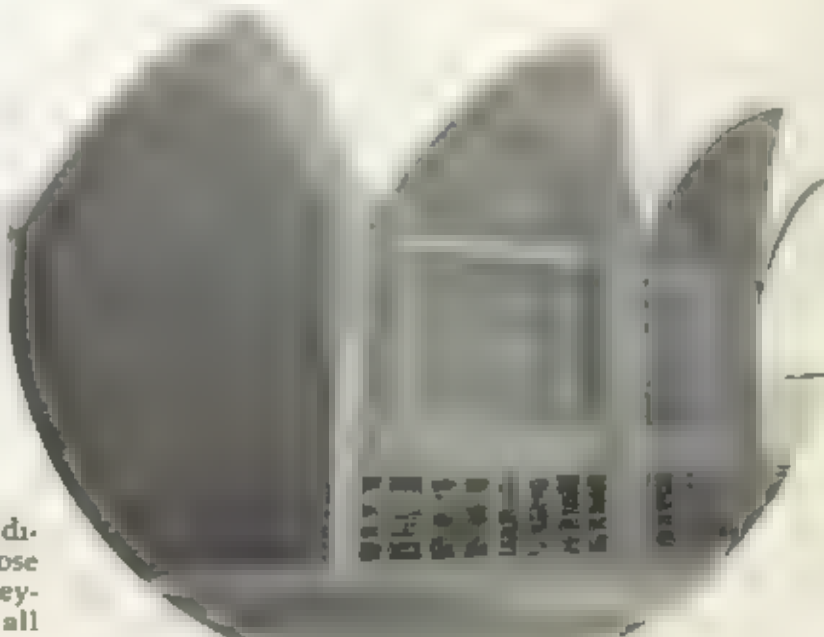

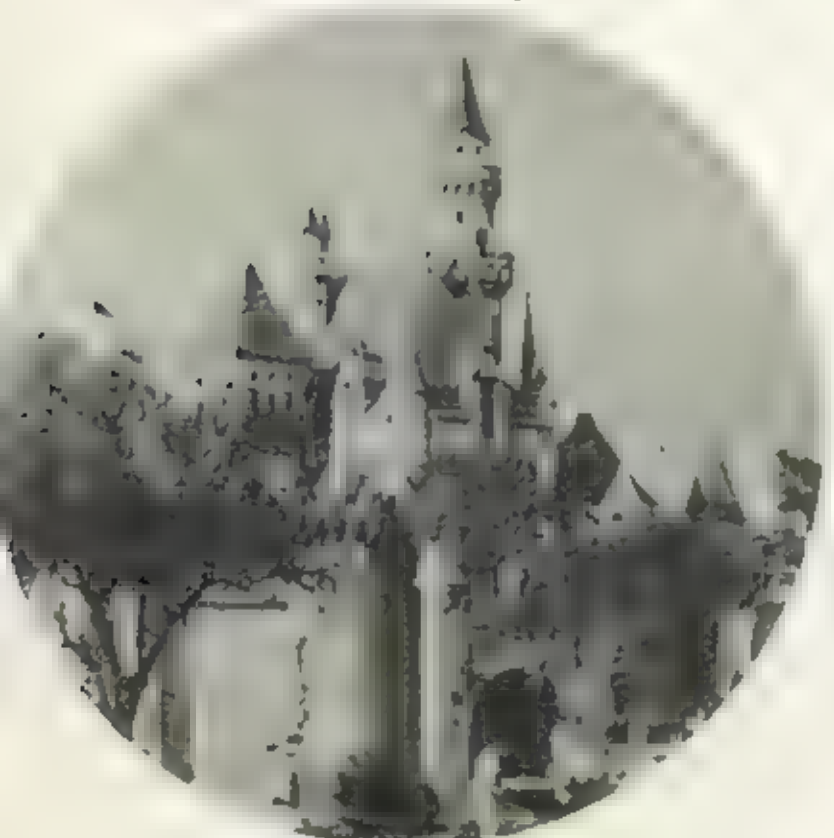

Diversity

Mira Costa is a result of California's diversity—a diversity influenced by California's climate and growing population. The state's early economy was primarily one of agriculture; the Golden State presented a panorama of acres of citrus groves and vegetable fields. With the industrial boom, California's population sky-rocketed. Thousands of people poured into the state daily, seeking jobs in the infant industries. Established to satisfy educational needs, Mira Costa's foundations were laid on the site of what was once Japanese-owned farm lands.

The sunny climate of California is reflected not only in the vivacious atmosphere of Mira Costa's campus, but in her physical appearance as well. California's climate allows for openness of architectural design. Mira Costa's spacious halls and modern buildings symbolize the graciousness of California living.

The flowing, graceful lines of Mira Costa's auditorium have become a landmark in the beach cities.

Climate makes it possible for Mira Costa to have open halls. Unlike at Eastern schools where winter snow keeps students inside, Mira Costa students enjoy a mild winter and can walk through open halls to classes.

Just as Mira Costa's auditorium is familiar to those at the beach, so Disneyland castle is known all over the world.

Authentic Mexican wares are still sold at Alvera Street—a glimpse of the past next door to the L. A. City Hall

The Mira Costa sign board greets Mr. Fisher, our new principal, in Spanish.

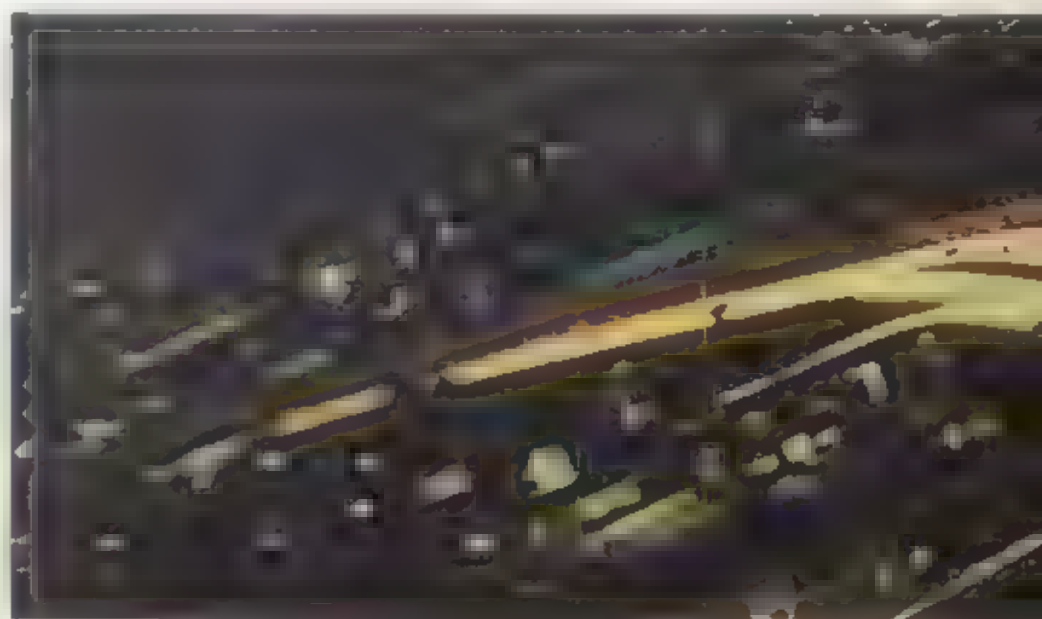

Mira Costa Reflects

Sprawling between the mountains and the sea, Los Angeles fans over a dry plain, forming a prairie of buildings. Viewed from above, an otherwise monotonous stretch of buildings over the flatlands is transformed into a blend of structures from which a raw, pulsing vitality seems to rise. Dignified with Spanish heritage, Los Angeles displays a venturesome creativity which adds luster to the city.

Most elements of grace and beauty within the city are man-made, with the picturesque relics of its past nearly submerged in the metropolitan expanse. However, two missions, the restoration of the original Spanish plaza, and a scattering of museums provide a glimpse into the city's heritage.

Mira Costa itself embodies the Spanish influences of the city. Its name calls the student to "Look to the Coast" as did Spanish conquistadores. The school newspaper, La Vista, provides a realistic "view" of Mira Costa life. Many students are of Spanish descent and Mira Costa maintains a friendly relationship with her sister school in Mexico.

Mira Costa Reveals the

Mira Costa is a school on wheels. Both students and teachers drive they then park in one of three parking lots.

The piers of the South Bay area reveal the many types of recreation by the sea, such as fishing, surfing, boating, and swimming.

"Mira Costa's pool trains students in other types of water recreation, such as diving, competition swimming, water polo, and synchronized swimming."

The pulsating pace by which South Bayans live has always been a source of wonder to visitors living outside the area. Perhaps it is the ebb and flow of the ocean and the mighty power behind the surge of the waves that urge the community on, for life is centered around the sea.

Moving upward from the shore is a network of highways bearing the surging automotive tide that is inspired by the incessant pace of the South Bay. Congested traffic arteries carry the life blood of the area to its farthest extremities, and crowded parking lots provide outlets for temporary relief from the tremendous pressures existing in the web of traffic patterns.

Community life in the South Bay revolves on the carousel of automation. Automation in the home provides the family with leisure time that enables them to have moments together. The churches dotting the area provide Bayans with the inspiration to meet the taxing pace in which they live. Life at Mira Costa is as fast and pulsating as the community in which it is situated. Students sometimes arrive in the early morning and leave only after the sun has begun to set into the sea.

Reflects the Progress of the Whole

The chemistry lab at Mira Costa is the first step in a space-age career in advanced chemistry.

New, up-to-date business machines prepare Mira Costa students for employment at any one of the nearby space firms.

As the Golden State attracts residents from all over the United States, and California takes its place as the most populous State in the Union, Mira Costa successfully meets the demands of an ever-increasing and diversified enrollment. The school reflects the pooling of talents which has resulted from California's growing population. Mira Costa has matched both the technical and cultural progress of California.

From California's new residents, the State's many aviation industries draw skilled personnel; and Mira Costa's well-stocked science laboratories are a first step toward a career in bio-physics or space engineering, as the school strives to keep up with the technical advancements of the space age.

The cultural progress evidenced in Southern California by Los Angeles' new Art Museum is also shown in our community's pride in Mira Costa's art collection one of the finest high school collections in the United States.

CURRICULUM

Carl E. Fisher brought to the position of principal of Mira Costa a youthful enthusiasm tempered by long experience in education. He has been connected with Mira Costa ever since 1951; after teaching math and P.E. for one year, he assumed the first of many administrative positions. For seven years, he was Assistant Principal, and in 1965, Mr. Fisher was named Principal of Mira Costa High School.

Mr. Fisher is quick to fulfill community as well as school responsibilities, and serves as a liaison between the public and the school. As the chief administrator of Mira Costa, Mr. Fisher is committed to excellence in education-- an excellence which is demonstrated at Mira Costa by the respect in which the South Bay community holds its school, the quality of instruction given to Mira Costa students, and an enthusiastic dedication to all facets of high school activities.

Their Encourage

Planning and guidance in all facets of school life were the responsibilities of Mira Costa's administrators: Mr. Carl Fisher, Principal; Mr. Hugh Cameron, Boys' Vice-Principal; Mrs. Catherine McVey, Girls' Vice-Principal; Miss Millie Thomas, Vice-Principal in Charge of Counseling; and Mr. Don Cogswell, Vice-Principal in Charge of Attendance. Mr. Cameron and Mrs. McVey worked alongside of Mr. Fisher in coordinating all Boys' and Girls' League activities during the year. Directing the Counseling Office was Miss Thomas, and checking all attendance was Mr. Cogswell.

The administrators managed to make room in their busy schedules to take a warm and personal interest in the students, and Mira Costa's student body valued very highly the leadership, guidance, understanding, and encouragement offered by the administration throughout the year.

Vital to the smooth operation of any high school is its specialized staff. At Mira Costa, this staff included Mr. Scarcella, Student Activities Director; Miss Risse, Mr. Mills, Mr. Wilcox, Mr. McIntyre, and Mrs. Butterfield, counselors; Miss Cowan, Librarian; and Mrs. Johnson, the school nurse. Mr. Scarcella supervised all actions of the student government. The counselors were given the task of interpreting students' past records and helping plan their futures. Mrs. Cowan was responsible for our library and instruction concerning the use of its materials. Mrs. Johnson had all she could do to keep Mustangs healthy, as they came to her with everything from sprained ankles to measles. The members of the specialized staff concerned themselves with the students' futures and guided them toward productive lives.

Candy Cameron takes Mrs. Cowan by surprise when she tries to check out twelve library books.

It's difficult to teach history to seniors—they know everything!

A Look Into The Illuminates

"Those who do not read history are condemned to repeating it!" thundered Mr. Stannard, head of the Mira Costa Social Studies Department. Mira Costa students read ancient history, world history, and American history, in addition to U.S. government, geography, psychology, and sociology. And the faculty of the Social Studies Department took care that their students did not repeat monumental historical disasters.

Freshmen were given a broad perspective of their position on the globe, and learned of the origins of civilization. Sophomores advanced into modern civilization, with emphasis on the Renaissance and the Reformation. Juniors placed their nation into the scope of world history and current affairs. Seniors prepared for an active role in civic affairs and economics. The Mira Costa Social Studies Department strived to instill in its students the concept of history as the relation of past events to the present.

Communication

The structure of a sentence, the exploits of Beowulf, the significance of a Shakespearean metaphor, and the style of Dostoevsky—all these helped make up four years in the English Department at Mira Costa. Students emerged from their freshmen class with a knowledge of grammar and a background in mythology. In their sophomore year they went "beyond the looking glass" to discover the major aspects of English literature, and, as juniors, they delved into American literature and prepared for the Junior Comp. Test in the spring. Micohi seniors continued in the mechanical aspects of English and learned the importance of logic while exploring the theater and modern literature.

Mira Costa's English Department emphasized English as an art necessary for coherence in communication, and students studied grammar, composition, and literature to criticize what they read and to improve their own communication.

Creativity

Mira Costa's Math Department encouraged creativity as well as a logical approach to problem solving. Here, even navigation was part of the mathematics program.

One could brush up on fundamentals with a course in general math, and taste the excitement of the unknown in an algebra course. Geometry entered the solid ground of logic and proofs. Third-year math students explored imaginary numbers, second-degree equations, and trigonometry. In Math Analysis, students utilized all the skills they had learned to solve creative math problems of permutation, chance, and calculus.

Within The Bounds of Logic

Mira Costa's Science Department was test tubes and textbooks, formaldehyde, fulcrums, and formulas. A general science course offered an introduction to both the physical and biological sciences. Those who preferred the living sciences studied biology and physiology. An introduction course in physical science could be followed with courses in chemistry and physics.

The Department fostered enthusiasm within the bounds of scientific discipline. The well-stocked chemistry and physics labs encouraged supervised experimentation. The Science Fair was evidence of the hundreds of creative hours which went into research and experiments.

"Walk together, talk together, all ye people of the earth." The Language Department of Mira Costa incorporated this motto of the AFS into its goals, as the instructors of French, Latin, and Spanish hoped that their students would learn to communicate with people of different origins. The first two years of study were spent on fundamentals of grammar and pronunciation, while the final years emphasized literature and conversation. After having completed a language course at Mira Costa, students had a good background in the language, customs, and geography of the country from which the language originated.

The world of art was revealed to Mira Costa students through the course offered by the Art Department. The techniques of color, texture, and design were mastered by students taking courses in general art and freehand. If a student's talent was not inclined toward the use of the brush he could create his own three-dimensional world in design structure or ceramics.

Music is also an art and Mira Costa offered classes which enabled the student to express himself through singing or playing an instrument. Under the direction of Miss Bowler, students could sing in many different groups, including the MicoAires. Mr. Pearson directed the Michohi orchestra and marching band, which enabled students to express themselves through the media of an instrument.

Craftsmanship

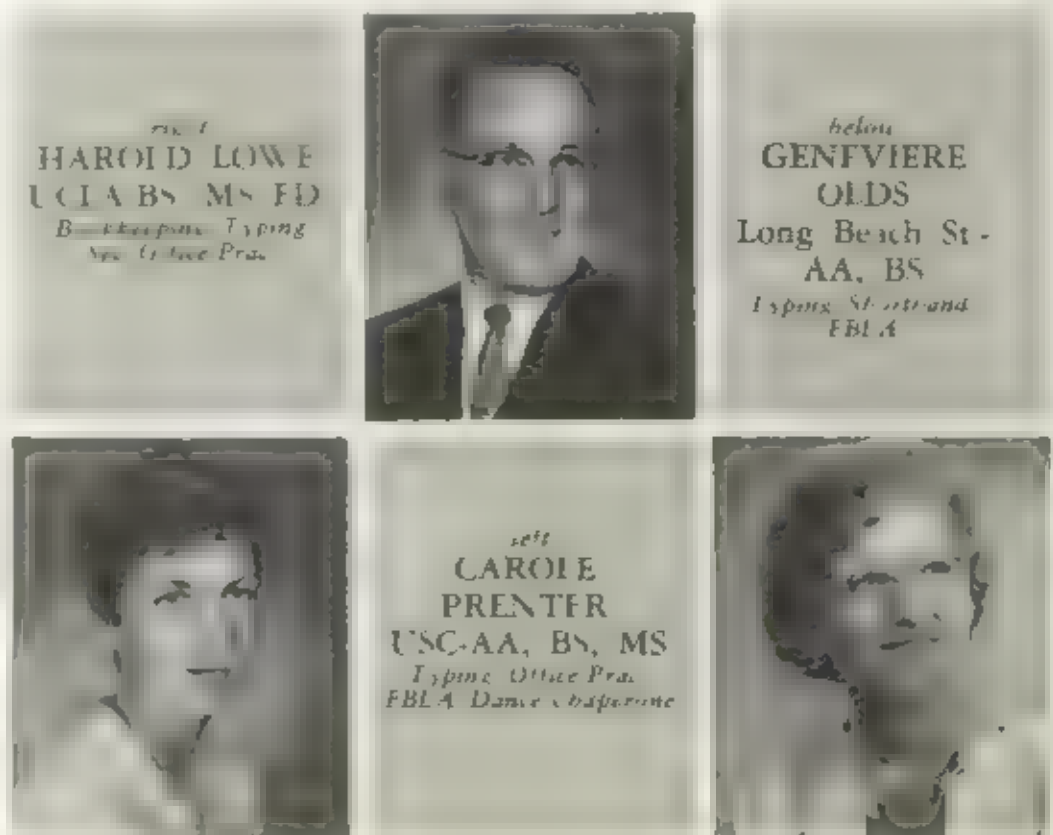

Linda Enyert, Miss Business 1965-66, improves her shorthand skill every day in class.

Learning typing skills is important to M.C. student Kim Johnson.

Most classes offered by Mira Costa's Business Education Department were geared especially for the student planning a business career after graduation, while skills in typing, notehand, and shorthand were as valuable to college-bound students as they were to future secretaries. Courses in business law, business machines, sales, business math, and bookkeeping provided special business skills. Emphasis on appropriate dress and attitudes helped prepare the business student for that all-important first job interview.

Creativity and craftsmanship were the key to success in Mira Costa's Industrial Arts Department, where all the beauty of careful craftsmanship went into the furniture, radios, and tools made by the students in the various shops. Physical Fitness Lifts

Active boys release energy on the basketball court.

Curriculum in the Boys' Physical Education Department did not take on any new aspects this year as did the Girls' Department. Wrestling, Basketball, Track, Football, Baseball, Swimming, and Tennis were among the many varied sports in which the boys engaged. For the rugged, talented, and devoted athletes, the sixth period class for boys trained the school's various athletes for Intramural competitions.

Smile, you're on candid camera!

The efforts may not be unified, but they are enthusiastic.

Mustang Spirits

Activities for the Girls' Physical Education department took on new aspects this year as all girls became involved in a strenuous physical fitness program. This was the first year the Department acted as an experimental station in girls' physical education for the State of California. However, all previous activities, including G.A.A., Modern Dance, Synchronized Swimming, Drill Team, and Pep Club were still included in the classes.

Homemaking students learn efficiency in the classroom to be carried on at home.

Sewing machines hummed, pots boiled, and knitting needles flew in the Homemaking Department this year. By learning the basic principles of sewing, cooking, knitting, childcare, and personal grooming, girls trained in effective home membership while learning to develop to their fullest potential.

Freshman and Sophomores studied the basic concepts of home management. Juniors were offered an additional course in knitting and, on the Senior level, the department offered courses in family living and vocational sewing.

Shirley Wells and Nancy Beer sew steadily to finish their class projects.

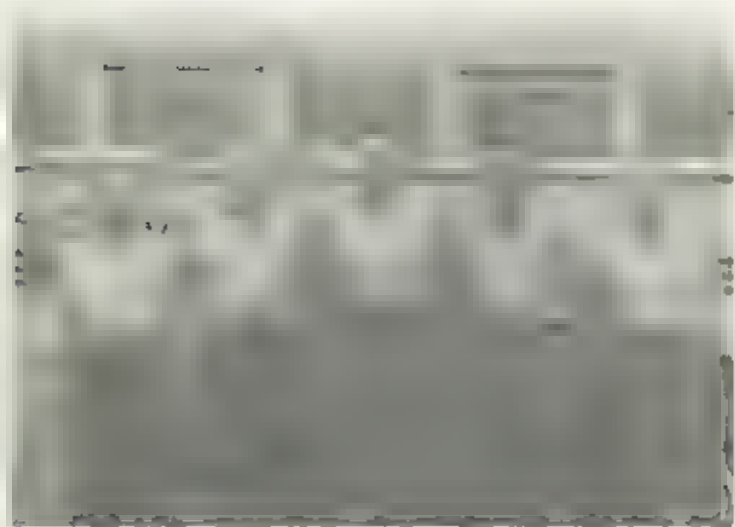

The smooth functioning of Mira Costa this year depended upon the people who brought students to school, fed them at lunch, maintained individual records, and kept our campus clean. Without the bus drivers, many Mira Costa students would have had to leave home very early in the morning to make their first class. Many students would have faced starvation at lunch without the efforts of our cafeteria workers in planning and preparing nutritious meals. The records for twenty-six hundred students were kept in order and within easy reach by the secretarial staff. Because of the efforts of the custodians, Mustangs could be proud of the appearance of their campus.

Pam Washburn

Girls' And Boys' State Twenty-First

Girls' State Representative Pam Washburn represented Mira Costa for a week at the University of California at Davis. At Girls' State, city, county, and state officials were elected and the girls held meetings at which they exchanged views on political science, religion, and nationalism using the lectures given every day as starting points for discussion. Pam said, "I did not realize that I could meet so many people, have so many new experiences, and become as personally involved in the problems of state government, as I did in that one week at Girls' State."

Transportation served as a privilege after many hours of site seeing.

Annual Convention

Three outstanding boys were chosen last year to spend a week at Sacramento as representatives of Mira Costa at Boys' State. John B. Anderson, John G. Anderson and Mark Sachau were selected for the privilege of meeting new people and learning about state and local government through personal experience.

The week on the Fair Grounds in the cow-barns consisted of cold meals, very little sleep, elections, nominations, fly-killing contests, catching frogs, and getting into mischief. Each day began at 6:15 and closed at 10:00 with the yell of "Lights out!" The boys who went to "State" look upon this hectic time as one of their greatest experiences.

The Mustang Trail

The splash of India ink, sharp click of the typewriter, and flash of the camera became familiar to those on the 1965-6 Hoofprints staff. Working under the tradition of the 1964-5 Hoofprints which won a First Place rating from Columbia University and an A rating from the National School Yearbook Association, the staff learned the procedures involved in the publication of a high-quality annual. To catch the motion of Costa's vivacious campus, editors Pam Washburn and Julie Johnson created the curriculum, classes, clubs, sports, and activities staffs. These staffs interviewed department heads for copy, ordered sunbursts for their layouts, photographed after-game dances, and alphabetized class pictures. The advertising staff was in charge of selling ads to merchants in the South Bay. The photography, art, and copy staffs used the theme to unite the sections of the book.

After being inaugurated in the fourth quarter of the 1964-65 school year, the 1st Semester ASB Officers learned of their responsibilities. President John Anderson presided at school assemblies and Senate meetings, while Vice-President Mike Moore led the House of Representatives. Susan Fox's minutes made known to the entire student body the actions of the Senate. Kathy Trone served as Costa's last ASB Treasurer, as the office was merged with that of the Secretary.

Steve Verry took charge of intra-mural sports events, and Commissioner of Campus and Health Kim Johnson spearheaded campaigns for a neat campus. Vicki Pontious was in charge of publicity and elections, and Vicki Dana arranged the entertainment for assemblies and hired bands for after-game dances.

The main function of the 1st Semester ASB Officers was to plan the student body budget. Also, under this administration, a constitutional amendment was passed which changed the composition of the Senate and the House.

2nd Semester ASB President David Prindle leads the student body in the morning flag salute.

1st Semester ASB elections highlighted creativity, as candidates tried to find room for their colorful posters on unpainted surfaces, and the campus was inundated with evidence of heated competition. Balloons, sandwich boards, and messages taped on the ground stood out as monuments to the campaigning Mustangs' ingenuity. David Prindle's campaign speech emphasized the need for creativity within the responsibilities of Student government, as he proposed murals for the cafeteria walls, a visible honor role, and beautification of the campus along Artesia Boulevard.

Junior Steve Verry was elected ASB Vice-President, under President David Prindle, and Candy Fickle assumed the office of Secretary-Treasurer. Juniors Steve Parker and Jane Miho were elected Commissioners of Athletics and Campus and Health, respectively. Nancy Beer was chosen Commissioner of Entertainment, while Paula Burnett was elected Commissioner of Publicity and Elections.

Creativity and enthusiasm were expressed in the election posters.

More than ninety mustangs earned membership first and second semester in C.S.F., the California Scholarship Federation, by achieving academic success (i.e., 3A's and 1 B) in solid courses. With Mr. Muehl and Mr. De Santis as their sponsors, the first semester members elected Gordon Harter President and as tradition dictated, took their half-day holiday at Disneyland. Second semester members, under the leadership of President Mike Moore, spent an afternoon in Hollywood seeing Doctor Zhivago. Those seniors who had been in C.S.F. for four of their last six semesters, including one semester in the senior year, qualified for Sealbearer status by attending the C.S.F. regional conference in the spring and proudly wore at graduation the gold tassel which symbolized their academic achievement.

Constitutiona

A.S.B. President David Prindle discusses changes in our Constitution with other students active in school government

Although this years Senate was one of the smallest governing groups in Mira Costa's history, the duties of the newly elected student leaders were equal to those of past groups. This years Senate, as many before it, was concerned with balancing the student body budget, planning money-raising events, and extending participation in student body activities.

The second and third quarter officers, under the leadership of President David Prindle, took as their theme 'campus beautification'. Mr. Anthony Scarcella sponsored both the House and the Senate, which were able to work more closely together due to a constitutional amendment which came into affect this year.

Changes Affect House and Senate

This year's House of Representatives consisted of representatives of campus organizations, the foreign exchange students, and the class presidents. This change in the size and composition of the House, previously made up of room representatives, was due to a constitutional amendment passed by the Senate and the House in the spring of 1965.

The House, like the Senate, worked closely with the student body budget and all bills concerned with expenditures originated in the House. ASB Vice-President Steve Verry led the House meetings and the House also its own officers—Jan Thompson, Secretary, and Gordon Harter, President Pro-tem.

Journalists

The workload was staggering this year, as La Vista returned to the labors involved in weekly rather than bi-monthly publication.

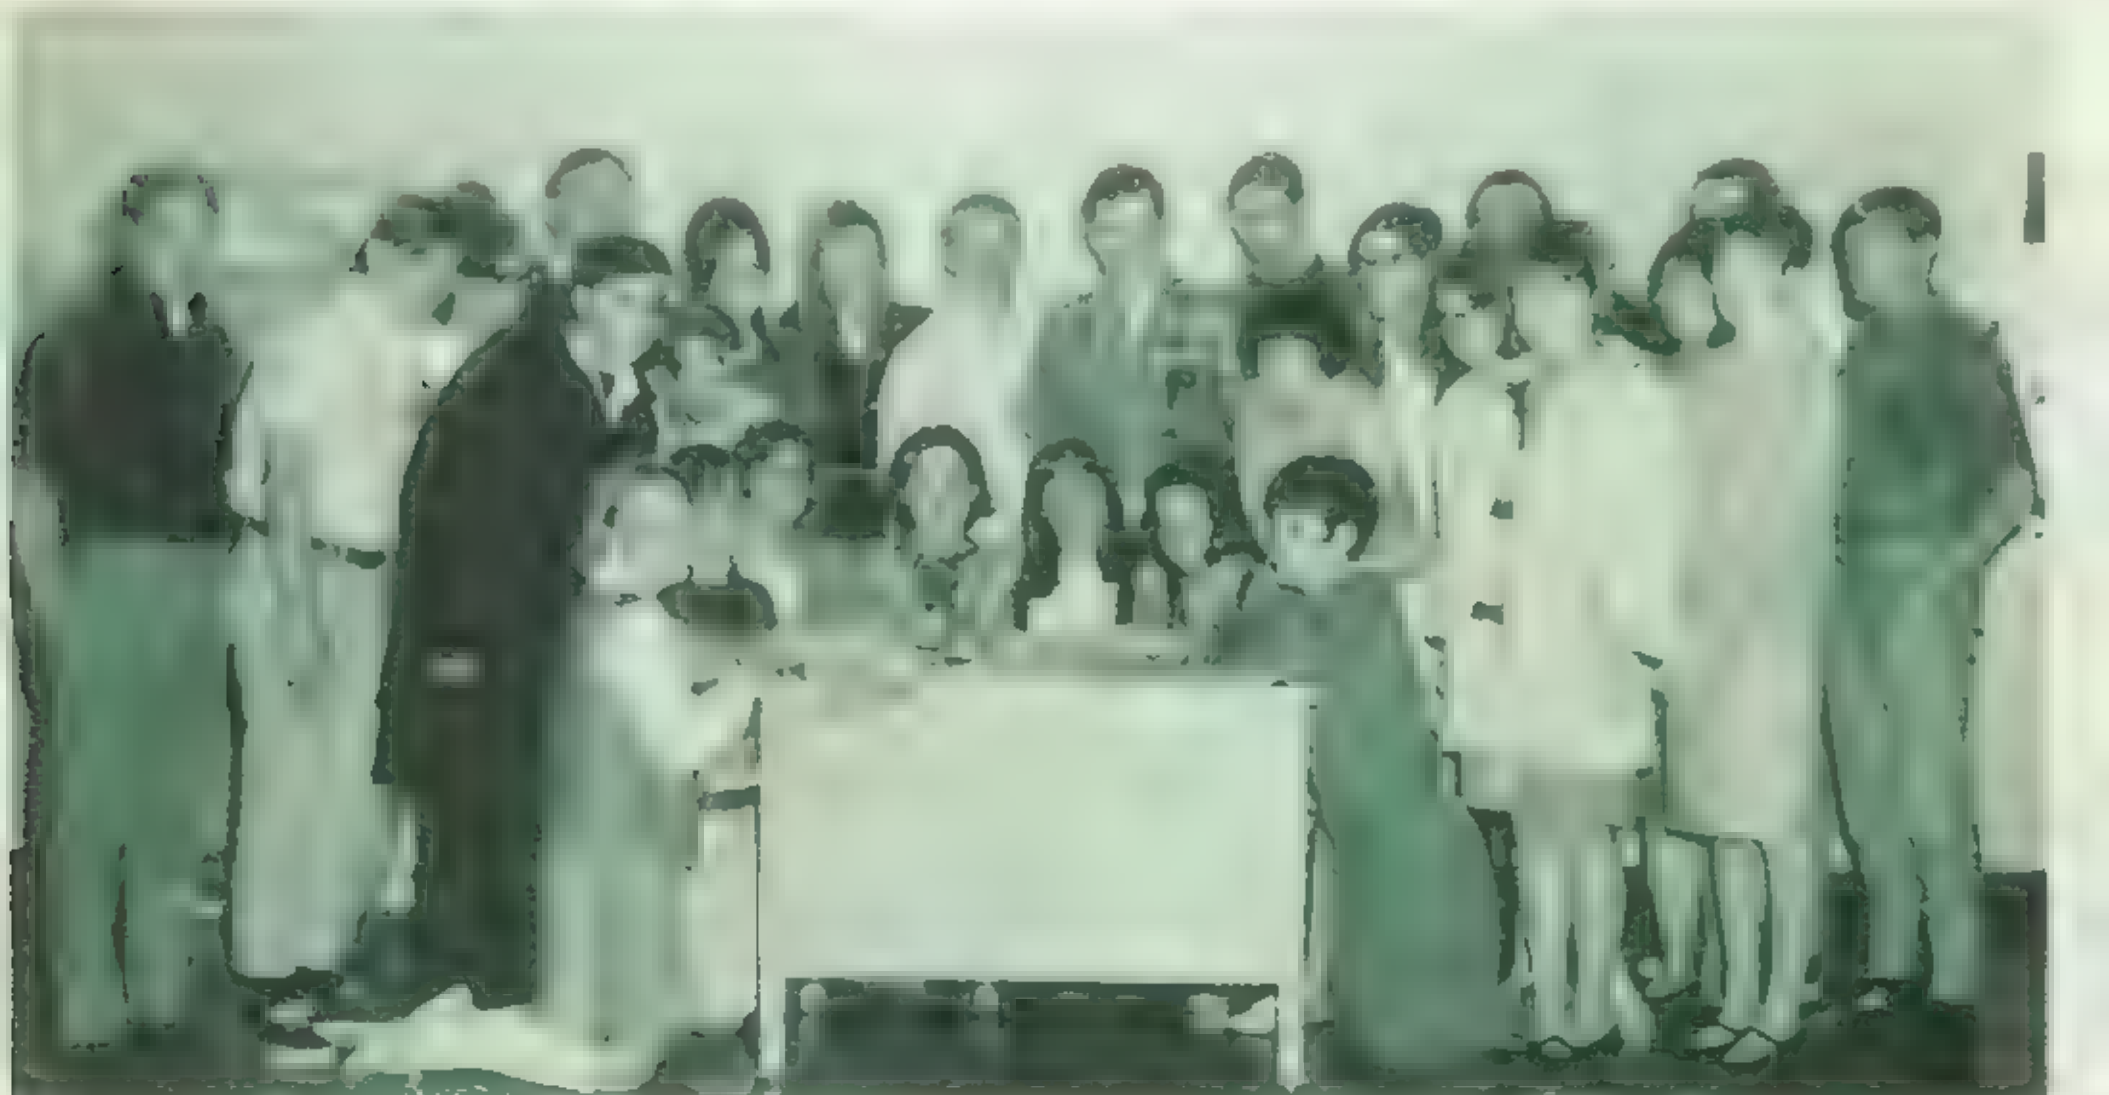

Staff members changed jobs frequently—from feature writing to ad sales. On all the positions, whether photography or sports writing, the journalists worked under the constant pressure of the deadline.

La Vista's pages, from initial layout to final proofreading, were student planned and completed. Members on the ad staff, under the direction of the advertising manager, supported La Vista by selling newspaper space. The 1965-66 Managing Editors were Julie Wellman and Mark Sachau.

This year's staff worked to maintain La Vista's All-American rating. The staff carried on the tradition of special issues—the Cub issue, the April Fool edition, and the Senior will edition. To the regular features they added many new features, including the selection of a Miss and Mr. Mustang.

Sometimes the sword is mightier than the pen. This year editors Theresa Meyers, Julie Wellman, Mark Sachau, Kim Woods, and Vicki Pontious pay close attention as Miss Menne wields her sword.

Girls' Senior Conference

Promotes School Respect

Members and Mrs. McVey inform new students of required dress standards for girls.

The Judicial Branch of the student body government is composed of the Girls' Senior Conference. The Conference members are elected each year by the girls of the student body for the purpose of reminding fellow students of the laws that are made by the House of Representatives, Senate, Administrators, and Faculty, and enforcing these laws. The members this past year were seniors Jan Thompson, Susan Bova, Betty Medina, Candy Caneron, and Pam Washburn. Mrs. McVey, Girls' Vice Principal, acted as their advisor. The girls met throughout the year to discipline girls for improper behavior and failure to meet dress standards, which were among the most common offenses committed. The conference emphasized that they did not wish to criticize, but only wished to help remind the girls of standing rules and initiate physical improvements in the way of grooming and dress.

Mira Costa

The Micoettes added color and excitement to many events this year. The 60 members were led through numerous halftime performances by Colonel Jan Thompson and Captains Pam Washburn and Shirley Wells.

To begin the 1965-66 season, the Drill Team, sponsored by Mrs. Beverly Rohrer, honored this year's varsity football squad with their second annual Kickoff Dinner.

Their first halftime show saluted the five foreign exchange students with an unforgettable routine danced to the music of "So What!" The halftime theme was "What a Country!" This performance included a parade down "South Rampart Street," a hula, and a Rockette-type chorus line.

On the evening of October 22, Goldfinger's influence was seen as four soldiers came from the stands and stole all the gold pom-poms from the Micoettes. Secret agent 007 was alerted, but he was involved in another case. So the Micoettes, complete with spy glasses and pink trench coats, recaptured their lost treasure to the tune "The Pink Panther."

The fourth show carried an enthusiastic crowd through Mexico and the Black Forest, and into Africa for a "Swingin' Safari," featuring Melvin Mustang as an elephant. A theme of "Peck Street South" was performed at the Redondo game. Special routines done by seniors in the group highlighted the last halftime of the season.

Another game begins as Captain "Soapy" Fairless bursts through the victory hoop.

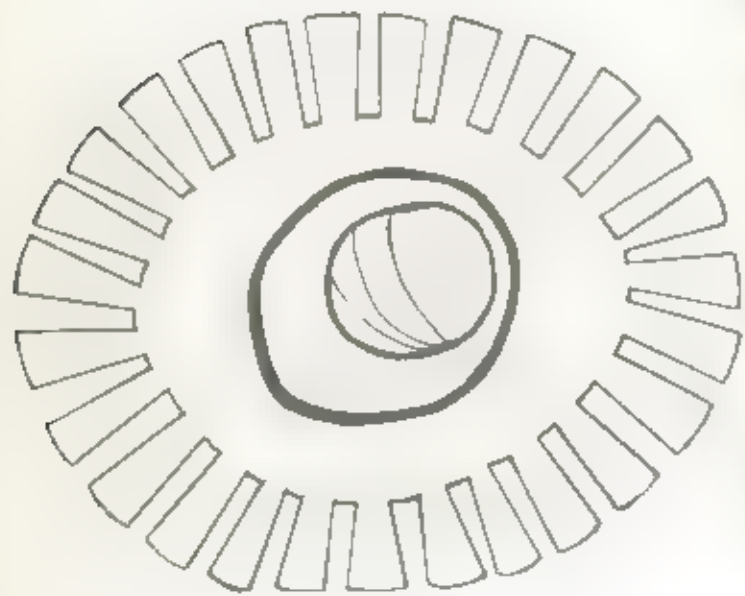

As a traditional end to every football game, the Drill Team joins in the Alma Mater ceremonies.

Drill Team

To arouse interest on the day of a game, Micoettes wore colorful green and gold plaid skirts.

Managers Laura, Vicki, Kathy, and Marcia carry the banner that precedes the Micoettes at halftimes and parades

See the boys . . . See the girls . . . Oh how they practice!

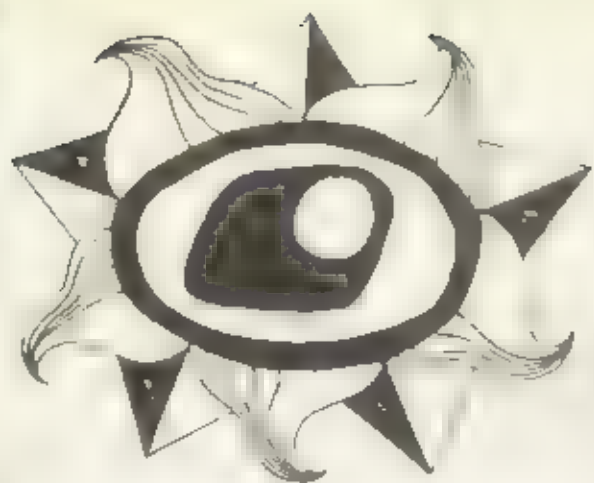

Success came to the Micoettes through the participation of all 63 members. Many hours spent at practice during and especially after school enabled these girls to reach a high level of showmanship as a group. An inspiration to all members was the never-ending vitality of their sponsor Mrs. Rohrer. Appreciation goes to the non-members who helped with each performance.

Special changes added to the improvement of this year's Drill Team. The "MCHS" formed by the combined Band and Drill Team gave the appearance of an increase of members on the field. Two new collars and the green uniforms used in the James Bond halftime provided variety of dress, as did the new parade uniforms. To encourage participation and spirit on the day of a game, each member wore her "Friday uniform"--a colorful skirt of green and gold plaid.

Introducing

Also included in the Judicial Branch of the student body government is the Boys' Senior Conference. Conference members for 1965-66 were: Mike Nichols, Kirk Kilgour, Vern Cunningham, Paul Arvin, and Mark Sachau. Mr. Scarcella, Director of Student Activities, served as their advisor.

Boys' Senior Conference decides on penalties for boys of the student body who have broken school rules of conduct and dress. Tony Lettunich Is Named

1965-66 Student Of The Year

The annual Student of the Year award has been given this year to Tony Lettunich. During his freshman and sophomore years at Mira Costa, Tony played "C" basketball, became a member of Key Club, and proved his scholastic ability by being in C.S.F. for his first time. Tony also served as the M.C. treasurer for J.C.L.

As a junior, Tony was elected to be Boys' League representative, he was admitted to the M.A.C. Club and became Vice President of C.S.F. Later he was chosen by the members of J.C.L. to preside as their President at Mira Costa. Tony was also the representative to Boys' State, where he was appointed to the post of Commissioner of Horse Racing. The highlight of his junior year was being selected as an A.F.S. finalist. During the spring of that year, Tony was elected to the A.S.B. Presidency, however, he conceded his office in order to spend next year as a foreign exchange student to Italy.

By the choice of campus organizations and administration, Tony Lettunich has been named Student of the Year.

Tony's experiences as a foreign exchange student included meeting students of other lands and customs.

One of the student activities accredited to Tony was that of A.S.B. President.

As co-captain of the Varsity basketball team, Tony proved his excellent athletic ability.

Girls' League Executive Board: Linda Steele, President; Linda Grazier, First Vice President; Nancy Beer, Secretary; Peggy Kratka, Second Vice-President; and Janet Strickley, Treasurer.

Girls' League

Girls' League inspires friendship, good citizenship, and unity among the girls at Mira Costa. The members began the year with the annual Freshmen Welcome Assembly, where several freshmen girls were chosen to provide the entertainment. The League continued the tradition of "Hush Day," when the boys competed to see who could get the most girls to talk to them. The girls got their chance to talk in the spring when the Girls' League sponsored the annual girl-ask-boy Coronation Ball.

Mira Costa girls served as models for two fashion shows sponsored by the Girls' League during the year. During the Christmas season, Girls' League Board members headed a spirited campaign to collect food and money for the needy of the area in "Operation Happiness."

Varsity Sweetheart

On November 20 the Boys' League, assisted by the Art Department, had finished decorating the gym for the 15th annual Varsity Sweetheart dance. The theme "Parade of Roses," was selected by the Boys' League for the dance. The dance is held each year to honor the Varsity Football Team.

At 9:45 p.m. the Varsity Sweetheart Court paraded under a canopy of roses. The girls were: Delphina Arce, Karon Beauregard, Nancy Beer, Peggy Bordelon, Paula Burnett, Karen Harris, Sue Hoare, Kim Johnson, Barbara Nessman, Brynne Sewall, Jan Thompson, Pam Washburn, and Shirley Wells. Following the fanfare came the announcement of Second Princess, Jane Edgerton, escorted by Mike Moore, First Princess, Tricia Watson, escorted by Paul Engle. The court formed a line on each side of the throne, waiting for the announcement of the last couple--Mike Fairless, Boys' League President, and Penny Todd, 1965 Varsity Sweetheart. Penny received the traditional kiss from the Varsity Football Coach, Mr. Peter Austin, and was presented with the gold football charm, as she took her place on the throne.

Boys' League Promotes Unity

Boys League was organized to promote unity and spirit among the boys at Mira Costa. The League encouraged a spirit of friendship between MiCoHi students and students from other schools. During the football season, the Boys League board members were a familiar sight as they appeared waving their handfuls of rooter ribbons. At the end of the football season, the League sponsored the Varsity Sweetheart Dance. In the spring the Boys League honored all the athletes with the Father-Son Banquet.

All Ye Peoples Of The Earth"

Perhaps one of the most interesting, as well as one of the best, ways toward world peace is the American Field Service program. This year Miss Susan Hoare and Bert Sundberg attended Mira Costa as representatives from England and Sweden.

In 1964-65, Tim Holten and Tony Lettinuich represented Mira Costa in Switzerland and Italy. This past school year Craig Pine went to Sweden on the American Field Service program.

Susan Hoare lived with Mr. and Mrs. John Bartos, Camilla, and Chris. Bert Sundberg lived with Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Harter, Gordon, Janet, and Lowell.

American Field Service, which was founded as a volunteer ambulance service for the French Armies, began work on a teenage level in 1947. Through AFS, Mira Costa students have talked with understanding and walked toward world peace.

The faculty advisor of the lower division was Miss Risnel, and the chairman was Harriet Nelson. Throughout the year "S" Club helped the school by serving at the AFS Pancake Breakfast, acting as guides at Parents-Back-To-School-Night, and aiding at registration. To raise money for their service fund, "S" Club girls worked for community businesses on the annual Slave Day in January.

Key Club, the boy's service club sponsored by the Kiwanis Club, served the school and community by selling popcorn and cokes at basketball games, ringing doorbells for the March of Dimes, and performing the flag-raising ceremony every morning. Mira Costa's

Mira Costa's 1965-66 "Green and Gold" marching band participated in many activities during the past school year, including outside performances as well as performing in school functions.

Executing lively maneuvers to the pounding cadence of loud drums and the shrill whistle of drum major Ron Sowers, the band joined with Mira Costa's Drill Team to present five original half-time shows during the football season. Such tunes as "Goldfinger", "Satisfaction", "Swingin' Safari", "Walk in the Black Forest", "Pink Panther", "James Bond Theme", "So What", and "Hi Neighbor" highlighted performances that brought standing ovations from the crowds in the stands. Mr. Ray Pearson, director, planned the different band formations for each game to coincide with those of the Drill Team. Besides boosting the spirit at football and basketball games with its music, the band enlivened the pep rallies with many songs.

At the close of the football and basketball seasons, the band traded their white bucks, hats, and green and gold braided uniforms for suits and ties and dressy dresses, as the marching band joined with other musicians to form the Mira Costa Concert band. Special recognition was given to them at their own Christmas and Spring concerts, as students listened to programs of varied musical scores hosted entirely by the band.

Recognition of Literary Talent

Membership in Quill and Scroll, an international honorary society for high school journalists, is reserved for those who have achieved outstanding records on the Hoofprints, La Vista, or Reflections staffs.

Quill and Scroll recognizes and rewards the particular talents and abilities of students with an interest in the fields of journalism and creative writing. Members rank in the upper third of their classes and are recommended to the society by publications advisors to Miss Menne, club sponsor. New members are installed at the end of the first semester each year. 1965 Quill and Scroll officers were Mark Sachau, President; David Prindle, Vice-President; and Juli Wellman, Secretary.

"Oh, is that really how you spell aughh?", Jan Thompson asks Mark Sachau.

SPIRIT INCORPORATED...

The color which brightened the track at football games can be attributed to the Mira Costa Pep Club. The 1965-66 Pep Club was composed of 5 Yell Leaders, 5 Flag Twirlers, 5 Song Leaders, 3 Junior Varsity Yell Leaders, 1 Majorette, 4 Managers, and 2 girls as Melvin Mustang. Pep Club was sponsored by Mrs. Beverly Rohrer. Mrs. Rohrer's tireless effort and endless enthusiasm truly makes her a Sponsor among Sponsors.

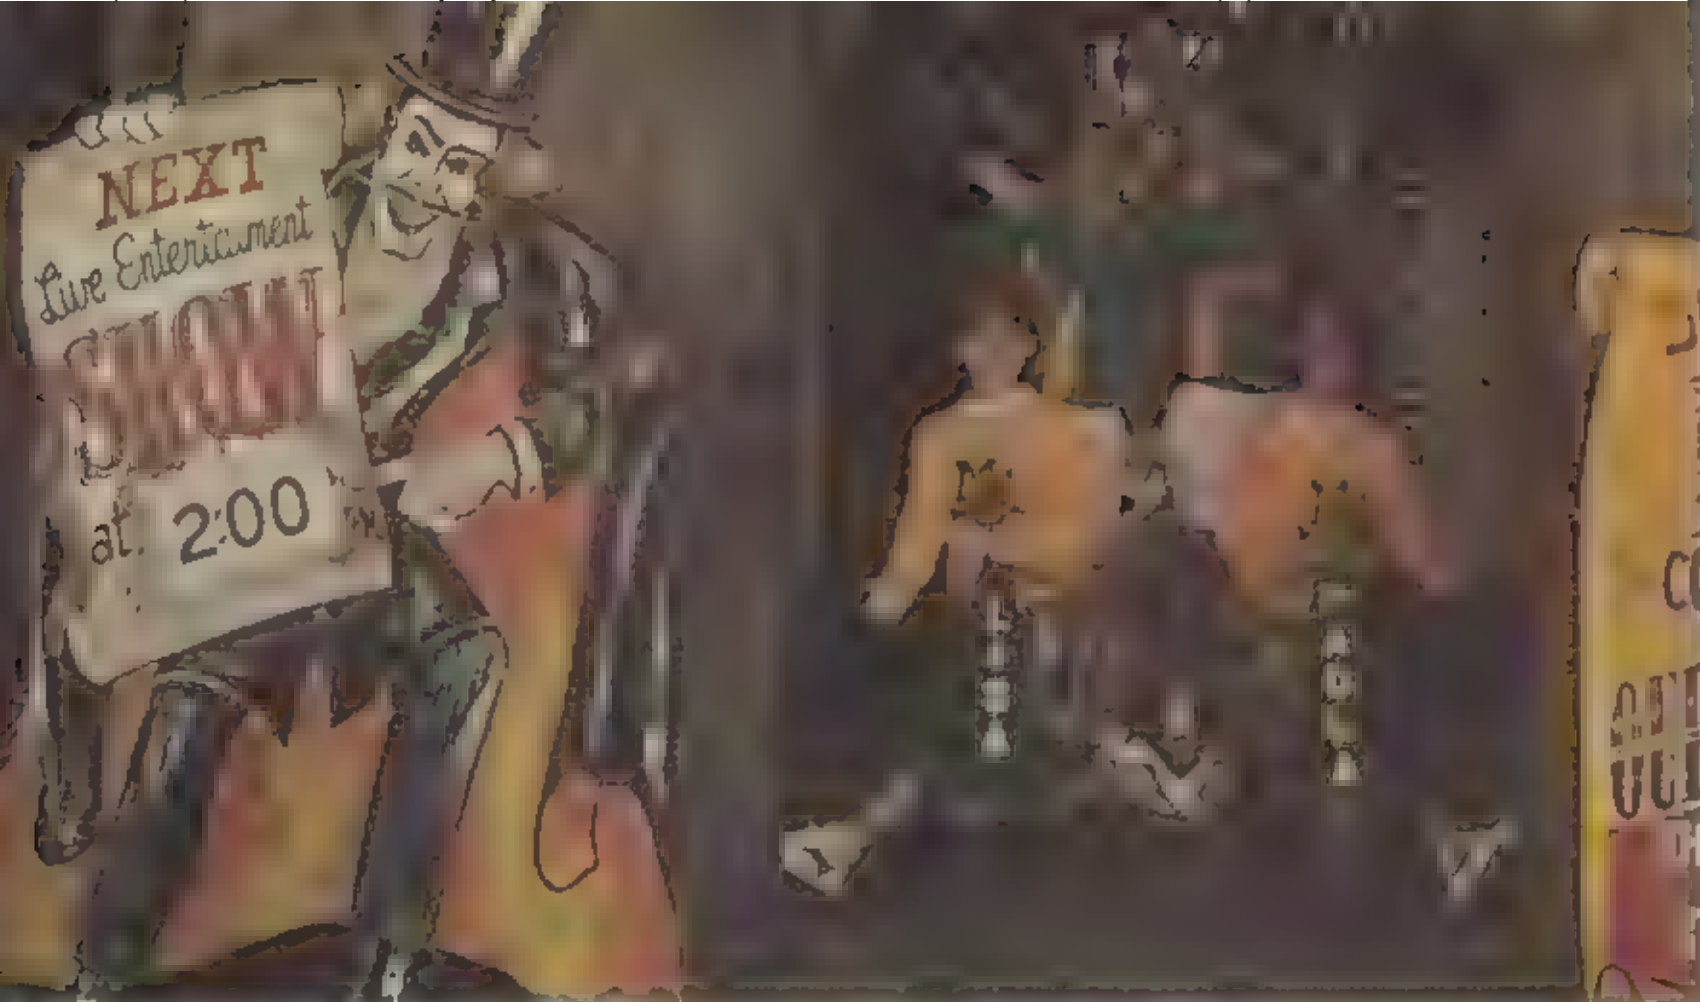

The major purpose of the Pep Club is to promote school spirit among the student body. This year these 25 eager Pep Clubbers did an outstanding job in building up spirit and pride in M.C.H.S. Enthusiastic Pep Rallies, humorous skits at snack and lunch, and a special Frosh Rally were among the things initiated by the Pep Club to promote spirit.

Works To Promote Spirit

The Pep Club members spent the summer working hard to earn money to support their activities. Their efforts were well rewarded, as they earned over $400.00 by collecting bottles, selling calendars, washing cars, and selling scarves. Most of the money was used to purchase material for uniforms which the Pep Clubbers wore to school on Fridays to remind students of the games. Another portion of the money was spent on refreshments for the Pep Clubs of other schools. The M. C. Pep Club members wrote letters to the other Clubs extending a welcome and desire to meet them during half-time. This helped to create a friendly relationship between schools, and also provided an opportunity to obtain new ideas for Pep Rallies, Yells, and Routines.

This year Pep Club was guided by Mrs. Beverly Rohrer, and by student leaders Candy Cameron, President, and Delphina Arce, Secretary-Treasurer.

Inkspots Blend into Creativity

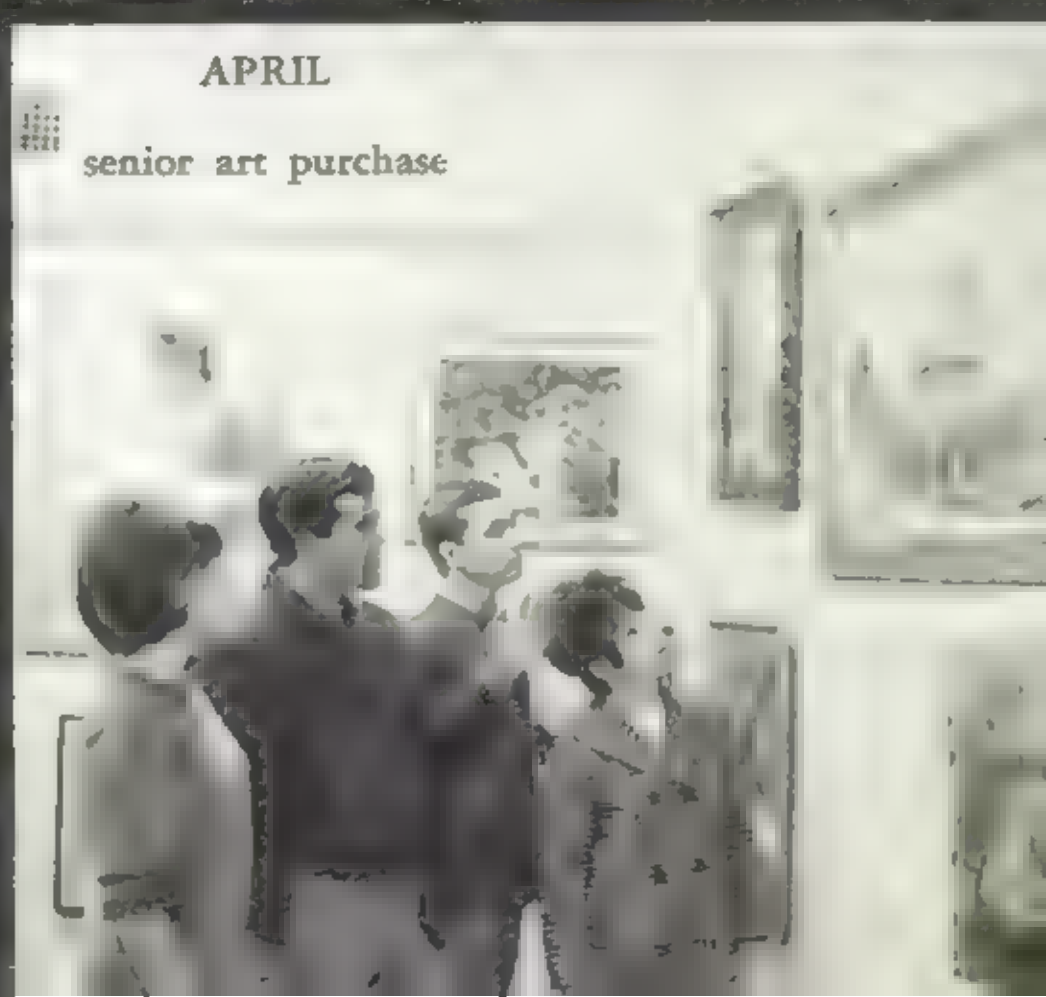

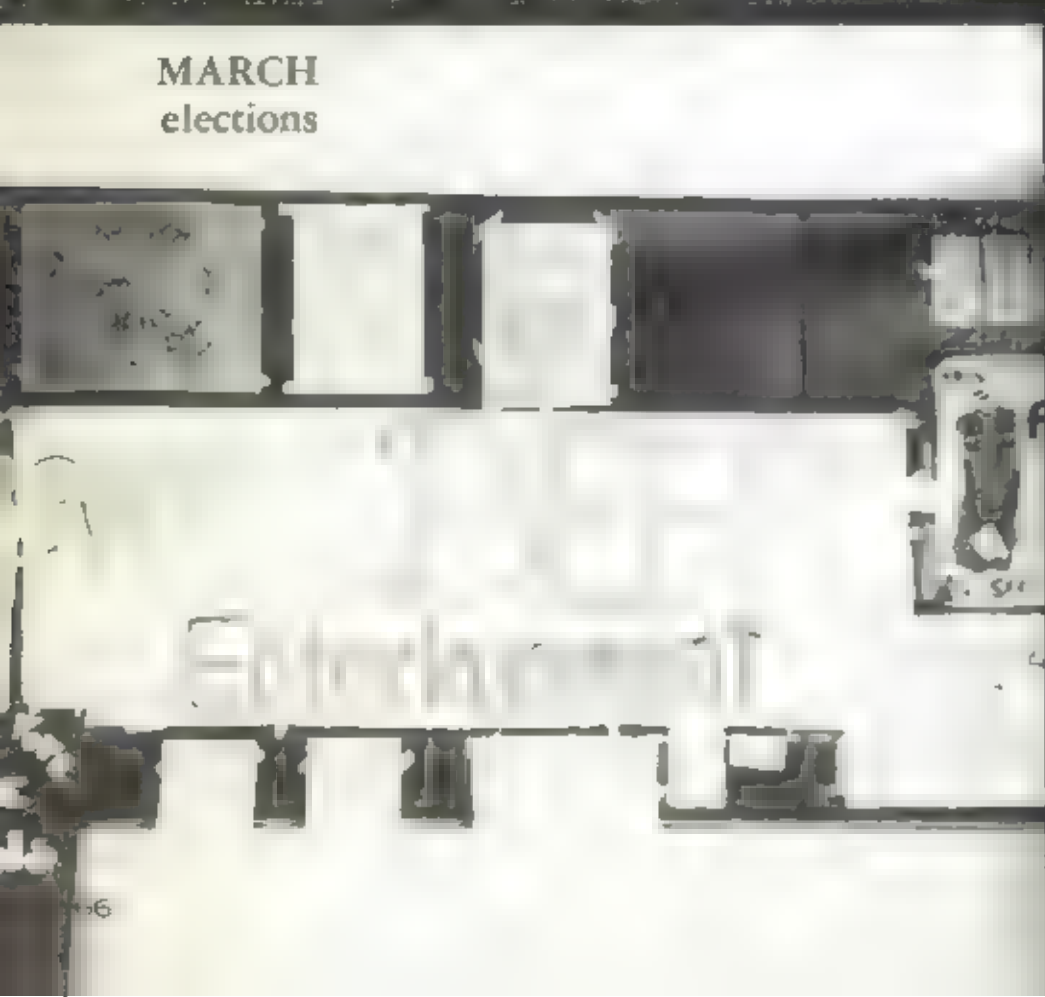

To bring out the latent creativity and talent of Mira Costa Mustangs is a formidable, yet rewarding task. The members of Inkspots were responsible for the publication of "Reflections 1966." This creative writing magazine reflected the restless, idealistic spirit of Mira Costa's youth.

Inkspots was sponsored by Mrs. Wadhams. At the welcoming potluck dinner, new members were introduced to Co-Editors Juli Wellman and Kathy Love.

Work on "Reflections" began as Inkspots sponsored and publicized Creative Writing Week, and continued as the club's committees — editorial, publicity, sales, typing, and art — brought the magazine to publication.

Of A Year

Mira Costa students hold many memories of the school year in common, but each Mustang has special memories to him which will recall the past year.

Registration brought dread to some, happiness to others, and to all a curiosity about the coming year.

Graduation meant the loss of familiar faces to some; to many it was a day to be cherished.

Although registration and graduation stand out as special events of the year, all the little things that made the days important should not be forgotten. These Calendar pages serve as a pictorial account of the year 1965-66.

Fads and Fashions

Hair styles, either long or short, were determined by each girl's personal ideas.

Mustang girls followed national and international fashion trends during the school year, always adapting popular styles and fabrics to the California climate, the quick pace in campus life, and to their own personalities.

The versatile poor boy teamed up easily with knee socks, as girls chose bright or subdued colors according to their moods. Near or far-sighted lasses used glasses with oddly shaped frames as fashion accents. Both extremely long and extremely short hair styles were popular. On those rare occasions when Southern California's sunny skies clouded over, individuality was featured in fashions like the trench coats and boots, furry jackets, and fitted coats.

Students in the NATIONAL FORENSIC LEAGUE found valuable encouragement and incentive for becoming effective speakers. They gained leadership training and earned league points through participation in competitive school tournaments in debate, extemporaneous and impromptu speaking, humorous, dramatic and oratorical interpretations, and original oratory. This year the club was host to thirteen schools in the South Bay Area at the Spring Novice Speech Tournament. The tournament was organized by President Ellen Guethlein, Vice-President Robin Eatherly, Secretary Maurine Newman, and Treasurer Larry Schutz.

The Fine Arts

ART CLUB members used their artistic and creative abilities this year in many school activities. The club helped other groups with silk-screening, and they created many imaginative campus posters. They helped design and construct the colorful sets for the Senior play, Teahouse of the August Moon. With sponser Mrs. Yabiro, and leaders John Tiffany and Bobby Collins, the club also visited the new Los Angeles Art Museum.

Both with the reverberating beat of pop-rock or the sounds of folk or classical recordings, the MUSIC CLUB encouraged an appreciation of varying types of music. As President Susan Bailey explained, the Club sparked interest and enthusiasm in its membership, which encompassed students of all degrees of musical talent and ability. With sponsor Miss Bowler, the Club planned many events during the year, including attending song fests, concerts, and caroling at hospitals.

Members of JUNIOR RED CROSS found that service can be fun as well as rewarding. Last summer five Mira Costa students, sponsored by the West Bay Area Council, attended the Red Cross training center at Crestline, and Ginny Cavanagh enjoyed an exciting trip to Chile. This year, Junior Red Cross planned parties for the Los Angeles Veterans' Hospital, packed presents for mental patients at Christmas, and helped host an International AFS Day, in which AFS students were treated to a harbor cruise, luncheon, and tour of USC's campus. Four of the Red Cross area officers were from Mira Costa this year: Vice-President Harriet Nelson, Corresponding Secretary Kris Segerblom, Recording Secretary Ginny Cavanagh, and Chairman of Community Service, Sandy Stockwell.

TRI-HI-Y, or Tandaka, is a girl's service club sponsored by the YMCA whose purpose is to build Christian character in school, home, and community through service to others. Club activities included a fall installation tea, a progressive dinner, a Thanksgiving service project for a needy family, a visit to a rest home at Christmas, attendance at Youth and Government Day in Sacramento, and a World Service project. Officers were Michele Sporcic, President; Joanne Peeters, V.P.; Merrilee Kramer, Secretary; Kelly McPherson, Treasurer; Janey King, Chaplain; and Sally Allen, Historian. Tri-Hi-Y was sponsored by Miss Carlson.

CARITES, whose name means "charity" in Latin, was organized two years ago for the purpose of serving the school and community. This year's officers were President Maurine Haeberlin; Vice-President Susan Longbothom; Secretary Susan Nelson; and Treasurer Kathy Hart, under the sponsorship of Mrs. Cones. Carites is affiliated with the Salvation Army and its activities this year included marching for the United Way, Leukemia and Cancer Drives, helping at the Red Cross car wash, serving at the YMCA and AFS Pancake Breakfasts, and giving parties at the Veteran's Hospital. The club presented a Summer Fashion Show to raise money for the Sandacre Scholarship Fund, Newsweek Fund for the blind, and Times Summer Camp Fund.

The JUNIOR CLASSICAL LEAGUE, better known as JCL, is the largest club on campus. The large membership provides for an active year and many varied activities. This year's first activity was the JCL's annual membership drive, which recruited 30 new members. It was followed by a welcome party and initiation. The most eagerly awaited event was undoubtedly the annual state Latin Convention, held this year in West Covina. Once again the French and Spanish Clubs were invited to the Latin Banquet which was the culmination of the year's activities. The presiding officers were: Gordon Harter, President; Pam Washburn, Vice President; Judie Pereira, Secretary; Gary Antzalotous, Treasurer; and Kathy Snelgrove, Historian. Mrs. Kelly was the club sponsor.

This year the FRENCH CLUB was led by John Taylor, President, Eric McPherson, Vice President; and Claudia Belcher, Secretary-Treasurer. These new officers were installed at the first activity of the year, a dinner held at Chalet de France. Throughout the year, the members of the club attended French films in Hollywood and saw plays given at UCLA. They rounded out their program with service activities which included assisting patients in the French Hospital in Los Angeles, entertaining the American Field Service students with a trip to the Los Angeles Art Museum, and holding a bake sale to earn money for the Sandacre Scholarship Fund. Mrs. June Lipschutz continued this year as the club's sponsor.

Spanish Club members exhibit success in 'Operation Mexicali'.

The SPANISH CLUB's may activities this year included trips to Olvera Street and Padua Hills, and collecting clothing and toys for the poor villagers of Mexicali. The annual Spanish Club Banquet was held at the Tiajuana Inn. The Spanish Club's goal was to learn about and promote interest in the Spanish culture found throughout California. The club was sponsored by Senor Robert Falcon. This year's officers were President; Mike D'Amico, Vice President, Roxanne Larkin; Secretary, Maurine Haeberlin; and Treasurers, Joe Rodriguez and Jennifer Floto.

New Science Clubs on

The MATH CLUB has been established basically as a learning club. The group takes up topics and problems which, for various reasons, cannot be taken up during class time. It is principally for students who plan to major in math or science in college and it provides them with a far better than average background in these fields. Such topics as methods of approximation, surfaces and volumes, hyperbolic functions, and 2nd and 3rd order derivatives are discussed. Several guest speakers from Cal Tech spoke to the group. The club was under the direction of Mr. Neff. Members of the Math Team competed in problem solving and "chalk talks" tournaments throughout Southern California.

The ASTRONOMY CLUB, sponsored by Mr. Schipper, usually met once a month to observe of the stars and planets with their 12-inch reflecting telescope. The members went on several trips to the Griffith Park Observatory to see the shows and to examine the observatory itself in an effort to determine the type of observatory that they wish to build for themselves.

One of the newest clubs on M.C.'s campus is the PHYSICS CLUB. The year's officers were Eric McPherson, Pres.; John Taylor, Vice Pres.; and Barbara Nichols, Sec. Activities included discussions held within the group, speakers from colleges and universities in specialized fields of physical science and field trips to colleges in the area and their science departments. These visits provided the members with the background which is essential in promoting interest and knowledge and helped them decide on careers in the field of science. Mr. Davidson was the club sponsor.

The CHEMISTRY CLUB, seen in action on campus for the first time this year, was established to further the study of chemistry over and above that done in the classroom. The activities of the club consisted primarily of demonstrations once a week given by students on subjects which particularly interested them, and could not be done during class time. The club took over the major work of the Science Fair and established a permanent set of rules. The club was led by 1st semester officers: Tom Greener, Pres.; Arthur Wong, Vice Pres.; Chrys Maganas, Sec.; Jack Porter, Treas.; and 2nd semester, Jack Porter, Ken Woolworth, Kathy Farrell, and Asa Wilson. Mrs. Eckert was the club sponsor.

Members of the FUTURE RETAILERS took a serious and enthusiastic look this year at the sales world as a possible profession. They engaged speakers experienced in the field of selling and retailing and gained training on the campus from Mr. Scarcella, Club sponsor. Under Club president Joe Berger, the Future Retailers also took field trips to department stores to check their buying and selling, and retailing processes.

Clubs Help Mustangs Choose

To promote interest in and gain practical application from the World of Business, the FUTURE BUSINESS LEADERS OF AMERICA engaged in many interesting activities this year. Following a field trip to the Union Oil Company, the club conducted its annual candy sale for Sandacre Scholarship. They also participated in the Mr. and Mrs. Business competition and contributed 50 dollars as a scholarship to one of their graduating members. Officers were: President, Barry Yates; Vice President, Mary Martinez; Secretary, Barbara Herbert; and Treasurer, Cindy Reed.

Linda Enyeart was chosen as Miss Business this year.

Their Vocations

Members of Future Teachers help faculty.

No matter how much teachers complain about disinterested students, there are some students who enjoy school so much they are willing to make it a lifetime habit. The FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA encourages those interested in teaching as a career. Sponsor Mrs. Nicholson, and officers Cynthia Reed, President; Leora Bland, Secretary; Suzanne Bailey, Secretary; and Leslie Macachek, Treasurer, led the club this year. Future Teachers helped faculty members with busy work such as typing or putting up bulletin boards. They also attended the annual UCLA and USC conferences.

Hospital corridors were familiar places to members of FUTURE MEDS AND NURSES, as many of the 50 girls worked in local hospitals as Candystripers. The Future Nurses worked to acquaint young people who hoped to enter the nursing field in the near future with different phases of medicine. To accomplish this the girls listened to speakers, viewed films, and took field trips. Officers were President, Donna Graul; Vice President, Margaret Home; Secretary, Kathy Powell; and Treasurer, Debbie Brown.

"Check!" says a voice grimly from the inner recesses of Mr. Smith's room, and eventually "Checkmate!", and another match of the game of kings has ended. Members of the CHESS CLUB met during their lunch periods in the atmosphere of concentration which characterizes the game of chess. They were able to increase their skills while they shared their enthusiasm for the game. Although there were no games played by letter or telephone, many involved duels had to be continued from lunch to lunch. Mike Butterworth and Steve Gifford were the Club's officers.

During the year of 1965-66, the STAMP AND COIN CLUB was under the leadership of Mr. John Silvius and officers Paul Buckley, President, and Juan Davidson, Secretary-Treasurer. Members of the group met formally at least twice a month for stamp and coin swapping sessions. They discussed the current trends, interests, and fashions in philatelic and numismatic circles, and members often brought examples and illustrations of new stamps and issues. This spring, the club presented an attractive month's display of stamps and coins in the school library.

Time For Campus

AMATEUR RADIO has been a very active club since its beginning in 1952. With club sponser Mr. Specht at snack, the radio "hams" met in Room 69 everyday, and membership was open to anyone who was interested. Amateur Radio members talked to foreign countries and other operators in the United States. They received confirmations of broadcasts from Mexico and Canada and countries as far away as England, Venezuela and Russia. The club was also active in the Sports Net, an organization composed of operators in high schools in the Bay League, and they broadcasted and received scores during the football season.

Folksingers practice for a coming performance.

The twang of a guitar and the tapping of feet heard in Mira Costa's halls testified that the FOLKSINGING CLUB was in session. With Miss Dillion, students met once a week after school to share their enthusiasm for folk music by swapping songs and guitar strums and chords. The folksingers also served the community and school by performing at a convalescence home and playing for the South Bay District Union of Certified Employers. In the spring, they provided accompaniment for the synchronized swimming program.

Members of the SAILING CLUB, a small but enthusiastic group, took advantage of sunny weekends and fair winds to improve their skills in sailing. These sailing enthusiasts were as at home in a sailboat as they were on shore. Members shared information on the techniques of dodging booms and falling overboard with dignity. Under the sponsorship of Mr. Foster, they gained experience from each other's mistakes. In the waters between King Harbor and Catalina, the Sailing Club gained nautical and navigational experiences on many excursions.

Sports Clubs And Provide

Shot-putting was one of the many events viewed at meets.

The TRACK CLUB'S purpose was to stimulate interest both in and on the track. Activities of the group included such events as attending indoor meets at the Los Angeles Sports Arena, and helping to score and keep time at the cross country and regular track meets in Waller Stadium. The members were led this year by Brian Waterbury, President; Richard Braley, Vice President; and Teddy Laurence, Secretary-Treasurer; and were sponsored by Coach Ed Austin.

The WRESTLING CLUB functions basically as a service club to the wrestling team. Club members helped to increase the popularity of wrestling by attending and working at matches. They helped keep score and time at tournaments. In addition to generating excitement and enthusiasm at matches, the Club members enjoyed social events throughout the year. They also earned money for the wrestling team with their annual candy sale. The club was led this year by Gayle Schlueter, President; Daveda Felix, Vice-President; Sue Herr, Secretary; and Roxy Harford and Donna Naud, Social Chairmen.

"Hana Sakura," a Japanese phrase meaning "Cherry Blossoms," was the theme of the 14th annual Girls' League Coronation Ball. Streamers of blue, pink, orange, and purple transformed the gym into a ballroom for the long-awaited evening. The bleachers were filled to capacity as Robin Eatherly announced the twenty-four couples which made up the royal court. From the wings, where the final hundred ballots had been counted, the procession of couples moved along the length of the gym to take their places on either side of the Japanese bridge. For the first time, two girls, Linda Steele and Paula Burnett, were chosen as queens and Mike Fairless was proclaimed king. After Steve Bova and Lynn Anderson crowned the 1966 royalty, A.S.B. President David Prindle began dancing with Linda and Mike escorted Paula to the floor, where they were joined by the rest of the court in dancing to the strains of "Hana Sakura".

Sounds And

The members of the Voice of Mira Costa maintained the school's communication lines during the year. Under the direction of Mr. Cameron, they helped with the flag ceremony every morning, set up the amplifiers for the Pep Club, and assembled the P.A. system for all home football and basketball games. They operated lights and sound for assemblies, and often achieved very effective special lighting effects.

VOMC members were always willing to run classroom projectors and they worked efficiently with the audio-visual aids and sound equipment which enrich classroom studies, add immeasurably to Mira Costa's dramatic productions, assemblies, and sports events, and kept Mustangs informed of school activities.

VOMC members Larry Cline and Eric Rose operate the light board during stage productions.

Scenes of Mira Costa

Mustangs earn Thespians membership not only by acting, but also by working on stage crew, properties, make-up, and publicity committees for school productions. Thespian tradition includes giving a gift to the school every year; in this tradition, the club has presented a tape recorder, movie camera, and film.

The Thespians presented a one-act play and a variety show at assemblies this year, and worked with the idea of presenting a childrens' play to the community. Micohi Thespians are quick to acknowledge their sponsor, Mrs. Reed, as a great inspiration and constant source of help and encouragement.

Thespian officers Paul Froug, Pres., Patty Wallburg, Vice-Pres., Jo Harkenrider, Sec., and Art Barras, Treas., have money to burn.

Let's press on with Plan B, Fisby! Remember, the eyes of Wash ington are upon you.

But Sakini, I can't accept a human present!

Honorable Class of

"Lovely ladies-kind gentlemen, please to introduce myself . . . Sakini by name . . . education by ancient dictionary, Okinawan by whim of gods . . . Teahouse of the August Moon by Whim of Class of '66 . . ."

On Friday and Saturday nights, the tenth and eleventh of December, a cast and crew of 110 students worked diligently to present this Pulitzer Prize-winning comedy. Six weeks of rehearsals and set-building went into the two-night production.

The play's main character was Captain Fisby, who had been sent to occupy the Okinawan village of Tobiki. To help him in orienting the villagers in the ways of democracy, Fisby was given an interpreter. In his quaint pidgin English, this interpreter, "Sakini by name," showed the audience, as well as Fisby, the quiet strength of his Oriental philosophy.

Fisby had many unusual experiences with the villagers of Tobiki. At one point, Fisby's superior officer thought that Fisby was becoming mentally unsound, and sent a psychologist to analyze him. The analyst turned out to be a frustrated agrarian, who helped the villagers discover that a potent potato liquor was Tobiki's most marketable item.

With economic security in hand, the Tobiki villagers expressed their desires, not for a Pentagon-shaped school house, but for a teahouse. Captain Fisby grew to understand the villagers' longing for a teahouse, and helped them build it. With his departure, Tobiki settled down once more to the life it had lived for centuries, under the whim of its ancient but venerable gods.

Choirs Add

Mira Costa's music groups, directed by Miss Mary Bowler, worked to satisfy their own desires for high-quality classical and modern music, and to provide entertainment for the school and the community. Mrs. Adaline Crable provided accompaniment for all the musical groups as they explored the intricacies of harmony, rhythm, and arrangement.

An introduction to choral music was provided by Girls' Glee and Mixed Glee. By singing in school programs and regional glee concerts, these students gained the experience necessary for advancement to the more difficult arrangements of the Festival Choir.

The green and gold robed Festival Choir sang in competition and at school assemblies. Outstanding choir members were advanced to the MicoAires, a prestigious group which worked with both the swing of the modern and the beauty of the classical. Student directors often led the Micro-Aires in numbers for school programs and community concerts.

Assemblies --

Mira Costa's auditorium has long been a source of community pride and the center of cultural activity. The auditorium is constantly used by the community, but during school hours, its most welcome function is to house Mira Costa's assemblies.

At Costa, assembly schedule meant more than just an interminably-long third period, as the year's assemblies were instructive, inspirational, and entertaining. The student body was introduced to everything from the intricacies of Einstein's theory of relativity to the problems of tribal chieftans. Assemblies also provided a showcase for Mira Costa's dramatic and musical talents. The Thespians presented a one-act play, and the band and choirs joined together in several meaningful and enjoyable musical programs.

From their zealously-guarded front-and-center seats, the seniors presented a united front at noon election assemblies and pep rallies. The auditorium's front row was often shaken violently with thunderous cries of "Go on Mustangs! Beat the Seahawks!," but the building remained standing — the center of the cultural interests of our community and school.

ASB President David Prindle and Commissioner of Entertainment Nancy Deer introduced assembly programs.

Tears were shed, and the audience roared, as Thespians presented their annual one-act play.

Sparks Industry and Ingenuity

No longer the "quiet corner" of the science department that it was when it began in 1953, the Science Fair this year laid claim to a great deal of space.

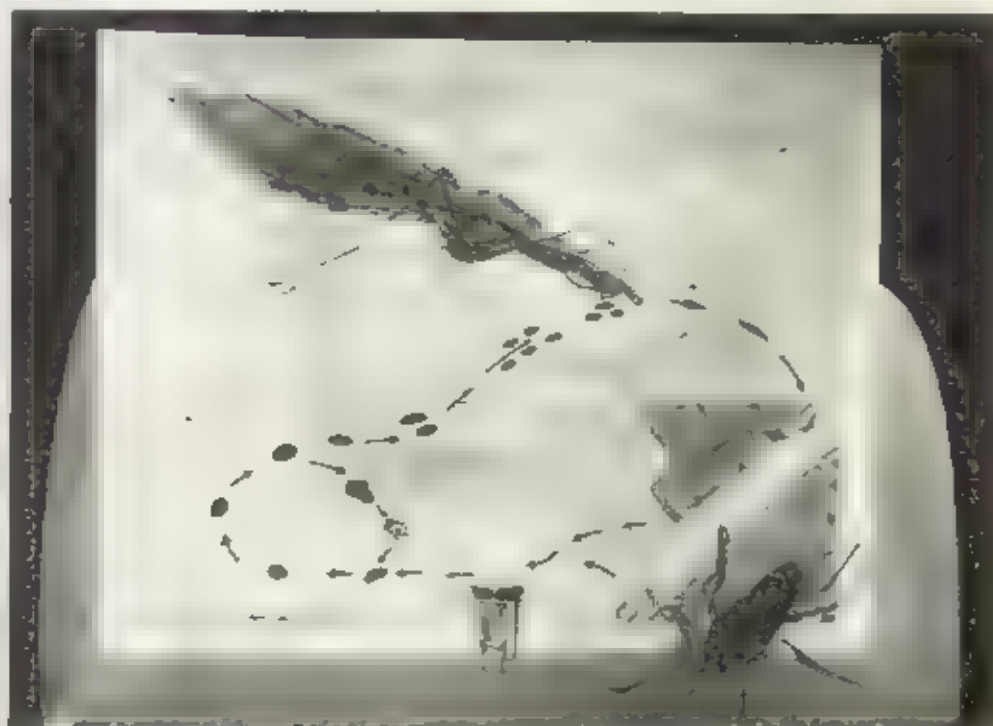

Sunday, March 13th, lights burned long into the night at many Costans' homes. Early Monday morning bedraggled, fatigued students and long-suffering parents hauled plaster models, paste-paper-and-sweat creations, and peg-board monstrosities to the gym, as the 1966 Science Fair opened its doors. Since its beginning in 1953, the Fair has grown to monstrous proportions. As it moved from the science rooms to the library and finally to the gym.

It has always been a controversial event; both students and teachers have debated its worth. Nevertheless, the show must go on, and science classes saw the Fair again this year during school hours, while the public viewed the projects in the evenings. Projects were judged in biological, physical, and poster categories. Winners received their trophies at the PTA meeting, and the five best projects went on display at the L.A. County Science Fair.

Mustangs have twenty-three per cent fewer cavities!

s Reflected In Class Leadership

Every year, freshmen face the complexities of a new school with anticipation, and the class of 1969 was no exception. The first challenge met by freshmen was registration. Next they were introduced to the unfamiliar routine of lockers and a change of teachers for every class. The magazine drive was the first money-raising project for the class fund. Freshmen looked forward to their first class elections in November. Elected were: Lori Middough, President; Charles Nunnally, Vice-President; Leslie Shirley, Secretary; and Debbie Medlicott, Treasurer. The class officers helped promote school spirit among the freshmen and set standards for the class to follow. As the year progressed, the freshmen became aware of their identity with Mira Costa and began to anticipate the challenge which the next three years would offer them.

Enthusiasm--Criteria For Class Officers

The Sophomore year was one of enthusiasm. After having survived their first unfamiliar year as freshmen, Sophomores looked forward to many new experiences and privileges. These second year members of the Mira Costa Student Body were now given the opportunity to participate in such extra-curricular activities as the service organizations, varsity and other teams, Drill Team and Junior Achievement. The class of '68 was led by President Robert Applegate, Vice President Jo Bosacki, Secretary Jessica Maxwell, and Treasurer Stancey Hancock. As they reached upperclass status in June, the Sophomores looked back on a year in which they had applied their enthusiasm to more active participation in Mustang activities.

This year's Junior class was able to look back on a year of increased privileges and responsibilities which called for persistence in both academic and extra-curricular activities. With Steve Tracy as President, Tokuji Fujizawa as Vice-President, Linda Grazier as Secretary, and Sandy Stockwell as Treasurer, Juniors met the year successfully. Many Juniors took part in the production of the Junior Play which helped finance the Junior-Senior Prom. In addition, team teaching brought Juniors in contact with a new educational experience which called for persistence on the part of every individual.

Linda Grazier, Sandy Stockwell, Steve Tracy, and Tokuji Fujizawa are behind the wheel as Junior Class officers.

The Class of 1966

the Hoofprints

Four years of business courses at Mira Costa and working for the business department have qualified ANITA PATRICK as the Hall of Fame student for excellence in Business. Anita is active in the Teen Life Club and Future Business Leaders of America. A winter sports enthusiast, she enjoys snow skiing and ice skating. Anita has also twirled a baton for several years. Her ambition is to be a private secretary after majoring in business at El Camino.

"La storia ci dà la possibilità di considerare e di guidare ciò che hanno fatto le civiltà precedenti," quips TONY LETTUNICH, Hall of Fame student for History, or "History gives us the opportunity to judge that which preceding civilizations have accomplished." Tony's Italian comes easily and his knowledge of history was enriched by his trip to Nocera Anf., Italy, as the 1964-65 AFS exchange student. Before his trip, Tony was ASB President and the Mira Costa representative to Boys' State. A member of Key Club and Captain of the V Basketball team, Tony is also president of the JCL. He plans to major in political science or economics in a West Coast college and will then enter law school.

"I make all my own clothes and it really helps my budget," comments COLEEN CAMPBELL, Hall of Fame choice from the Homemaking Department. Coleen enjoys reading and baking and is in the Art Club. Realizing that physical fitness is necessary for a good homemaker, Coleen is a member of the synchronized swimming class. For their swim shows, Coleen used her sewing talents and helped with the costumes. She plans to attend El Camino, majoring in homemaking.

s Honored in Hall of Fame

The Most Improved Lineman of the 1965 football season, MIKE MOORE, stands out on the field and the classroom, and has been honored in the Hall of Fame for Math. Mike comments, "Math has proven a most challenging, fulfilling experience, with some of the school's best instructors." A past ASB vice-president, he is in Key Club, Math Club, president of Sandacre Student Committee, and a sealbearer.

The Science Department chose SUSAN FOX as its Hall of Fame outstanding student. Susan has applied for a summer program as lab assistant in advanced research at UCLA and attended a seminar on microbiology in May. Having taken four years of science, Susan admits, "I liked dissection most." A four-year Spanish student, Susan is also active in the Spanish Club, "S" Club, and CSF and was ASB Secretary. She will go to UCLA and major in medicine or neurosurgery.

Four years of math and an early-morning navigation course have qualified MEREDY PULLIAM as an outstanding student of the Math Department. Meredy belongs to the Math Club and Spanish Club, and traveled in Mexico with her Girl Scout troop during the Christmas holidays. This summer, Meredy will travel with the Girl Scouts to Sweden. She plans to attend the University of Redlands or Occidental where she will major in math.

The Order of the Silver Slugs, a retirement club for exhausted La Vista writers, would certainly welcome JULI WELLMAN, chosen for the Hall of Fame for Journalism. As Editor of La Vista and Senior Editor of Inkspots, Juli has a good background in writing but will study history at Stevens or Redlands. Juli designs clothes and collects stained-glass objects. Her free time is spent in Palos Verdes riding her chestnut horse Li'l Red Dexter.

Outstanding

Solos Make a

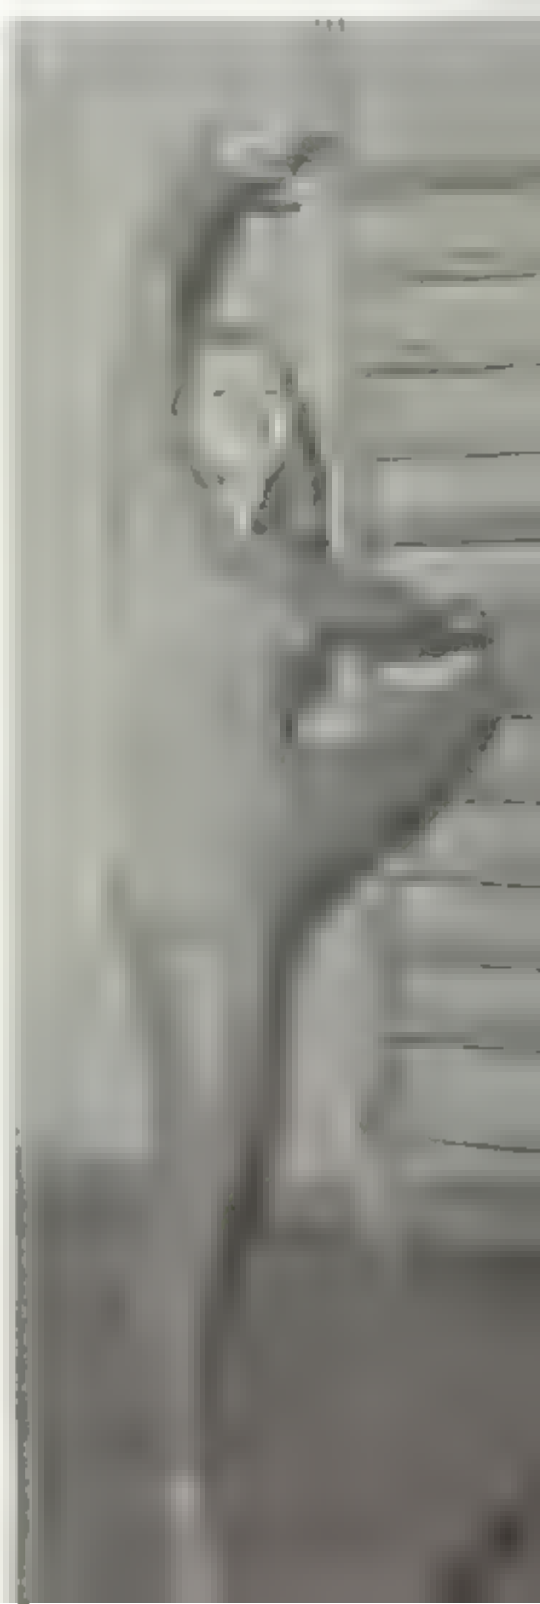

Talent, versatility, and diligence were the qualities the Drama Department found in its Hall of Fame candidates PAUL FROUG (left) and ART BARRAS. Paul is a member of the Interact Club and played B Football. Art is a writer, an accomplished pianist, and a student of private opera lessons. He won first place in the Southern California Drama Teachers' Contest and placed first in the Forensic state qualifiers in humorous interpretation. After a summer of studying in Europe, Art will go to Washington State, where he plans to major in drama. Both Paul and Art are Honor Thespians, have participated in all Mira Costa plays, and were in the Hampton Players' production of "The Boyfriend". Both actors wish to buy a yacht together and sail around the world.

CANDY ULLMAN has been designated as one of the outstanding students of the Girls' PE Department in recognition of her ability in modern dance. Candy has taken three years of modern dance and is also interested in tennis, swimming, and surfing. She belongs to the National Thespians and danced in "Li'l Abner". This summer Candy will go to the American School of Dance in Honolulu, Hawaii. She plans to attend El Camino, University of California at Irvine, or UCLA, majoring in French and minoring in dance.

For her grace and spirit in the field of synchronized swimming, SUSAN BOVA was one of the two students chosen from the Girls' PE Department. Susie has taken synchronized swimming for three years and also enjoys swimming in her free time. She has been a member of the Drill Team for two years and was on Girls' Senior Conference. Her outside activities also include sewing, Job's Daughters, and the "S" Club. Susie plans to attend El Camino, hoping to continue to use her swimming skill, and major in nursing.

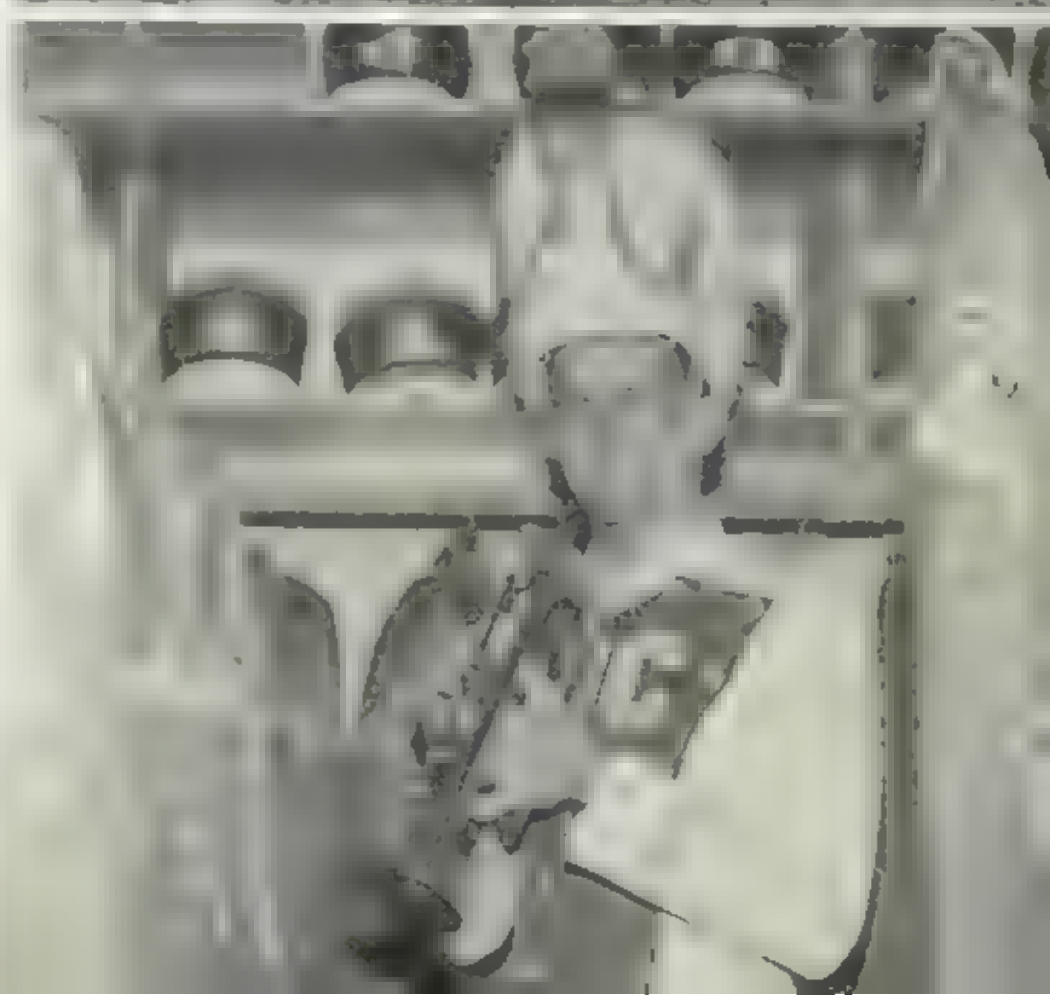

Great Team

Basketball, swimming, tennis, and football are the favorite sports of JOHN TAYLOR, one of the Hall of Fame choices from the Boys' PE Department. John is active in several clubs on the Mira Costa campus, including the Interact and French clubs. His scholastic interests are physics and math and he enjoys sketching in his free time. John has been a member of CSF and plans to attend Stanford with a major in either math or science.

Although a new resident of the South Bay, JOHN STITT showed enough enthusiasm to be chosen for the Hall of Fame from the Boys' PE Department. John came to Mira Costa his junior year from Bishop, California. There he was a member of the Competition Ski Team and in his sophomore year, his team was National Champion. "We got off from school two days a week to practice," recalls John. While a Mustang, he has been in CSF and is taking his third year of French and Spanish. Among John's other athletic interests are basketball, football, golf, and skiing at Mammoth. He plans to major in political science at Nevada University.

RON SOWERS, the choice of the Music Department for the Hall of Fame, was this year's drum major, leading the band through another season of original football half-time shows. Ron has been in the band for four years and has played the trumpet for nine years. In addition to band, he belongs to Teen Life and the House of Representatives. This summer, Ron plans to be a lifeguard at one of the Lake Arrowhead scout camps. Ron will attend El Camino and then Long Beach State, majoring in industrial arts, which he plans to teach.

"The study of French literature has opened a whole new world of reading," says ELLEN GUETHLEIN, Hall of Fame choice for French. A member of the French Club, Carites, Thespians, "S" Club, Inkspots, and Hoofprints, Ellen is also a National Merit Semi-finalist and a Sealbearer. After a summer tour of England, she hopes to attend Santa Barbara, majoring in international relations.

Mustangs are well acquainted with the work of LARRY FRITZ, Hall of Fame candidate from the Art Department, through displays of his unique designs and paintings on campus. Larry won a Gold Key in the Bullocks Art Contest, is a Thespian, and works on Hoofprints. He will attend the California Institute of Arts on scholarship and hopes to go into professional teaching.

Mustangs Exhibit Cultural and

VERN CUNNINGHAM, outstanding student from the Industrial Arts Department, plans to use his knowledge of printing gained at Mira Costa in the management of his own print shop. "I have enjoyed the experiences I have had here," says Vern, who also works at South Bay Publishing Company. A member of Boys' Senior Conference and the House of Representatives, he also plays tennis, surfs, and skindives. Vern will attend Santa Monica City College or Cal Poly.

"When I go to Pomona College, I know my background in Latin will greatly help in modern languages," says PAM WASHBURN, Hall of Fame student for Latin. Pam has taken four years of Latin and is active in the JCL as secretary and historian. She attended the JCL State Convention in Cupertino as well as the one sponsored by MC. Pam was captain of the 1965 Drill Team, Senior Representative to the "S" Cub, Hoofprints co-Editor, and is a Sealbearer. Playing the piano and traveling in Colorado are among Pam's free time activities.

Excellence in the Technical Arts

"I couldn't have bought this experience; Hoof-prints really uses all your energies and talents," says KATHY GROSSMAN, honoree from Hoof-prints. An interest in art and design is reflected in her original index page. Kathy has been captain of the Girls' Tennis Team, JCL historian, president of her church group, and is a Sealbearer. She is in a folk-singing group and worked last summer in a mental hospital. Kathy will go to Santa Barbara to study English or psychology and work towards her teaching credential.

LAUREL BALLOU, outstanding senior of the Spanish Department, has taken four years of Spanish and two years of French. Laurel is an active member of CSF and Thespians and has sung in the Micoaires. She plans a trip to England and Europe this fall, saying, "I don't have any set itinerary but I want to see all my pen-pals."

"Most of the problems in the world today," states DAVID PRINDLE, English Department Hall of Fame choice, "are caused by a lack of communication." David communicates versatility as he functions as La Vista feature editor, a member of Key Club, Inkspots, and Quill and Scroll, and a player on the V Tennis Team. David enjoys sports, writing, hunting, science, and reading. A National Merit Semi-finalist, he plans to attend SC or UCLA, majoring in political science or English. With experience as ASB President, Dave wants to become a US Senator.

Achievement Inspires Senior Officers

With graduation, the Class of 1966 was united in a sense of achievement, as it has been united in its four years at Mira Costa through rivalry and study, success and tragedy.

The Class began financing its graduation as early as the freshman year with a successful magazine drive. In the next three years the Class added to its funds with a "candy and light bulb" sale, and ticket sales from the class plays, Inherit the Wind and Tea House of the August Moon. In their four years at Mira Costa, the Class of 1966 was led by Freshman President John G. Anderson, Sophomore President Reine Monroe, and Junior President Mike Fairless. In the Senior year, under President Greg Bryan, the Class of 1966 exercised Senior privileges and met the academic challenges of the final year at Mira Costa.

Mustang Gridders

The 1965 Mustang varsity football team finished the season placing 3rd in the Bay League. It was a disappointing season for the coaches, players, and fans, who had hoped for Micohi's first league championship, but it was not a total loss, with a 3-3 league record, and a respectable overall total of 4-4-1. Again this year, our team started with a loss to Loyola, 10-0, the number 1 ranked team in C.I.F. Next came a 14-14 tie with underdog Culver City. The Mustangs won the next two, beating Dominguez 14-0 and North 20-6. They suffered their first league setback the next Friday in a 33-20 loss to Hawthorne. After a 54-12 trouncing of South, the team dropped its next two to Santa Monica, 32-7, and Redondo, 42-12. The final game saw a 50-12 drubbing of Inglewood.

Ralph Gambin shows form that earned him Most Outstanding Back.

Steve Verry finds a hole and fills it.

Besides the detailed instructions of plays and maneuvers to build a strong team, a great part of football coaches' energy must go into building character, instilling competitive spirit, and encouraging good sportsmanship in the boys on the team. Our coach, Mr. Pete Austin, with assistance of William Cooper and Earl Mersola, did an excellent job of fulfilling these responsibilities.

Throughout the season, Mira Costa was known for its clean, yet punishing hitting, perhaps as a result of week-long, pre-season conditioning and endurance programs. It was greatly through the efforts of these coaches that several players earned all-league honors. On the Coaches' first defensive team, junior Steve Verry was a linebacker, while captain Mike Fairless and Ralph Gambin were on the first team offense. Taking honorable mention were seniors Barry Winkler, Mike Moore, Paul Engle, and Jeff Holmer.

Quarterback Barry Winkler maneuvers around his Samoan defender.

Mira Costa 0 Loyola 20

The first game of the season found an inexperienced Mustang team pitted against a Loyola eleven, well-coached in fundamentals. Breakdowns at the end of each half cost the game.

Mira Costa 14 Culver City 14

The Mustangs, gaining over 400 yards, dominated the game, but penalties and errors cost dearly, holding the Green Machine to only two touchdowns and permitting the Centaurs to tie the score.

Mira Costa 14 Dominguez 0

The Mustang's offense broke fast with two quick touchdowns in the first half by Gambin and Colmer. In the second half, Mira Costa controlled the ball for their first victory.

Mira Costa 20 North 7

Losing at the half, Mira Costa's offense and defense finally gelled together, as Gambin's running and the passing of Winkler to Moore took the Varsity over the 100. mark.

Mira Costa 20 Hawthorne 33

The Mustangs started off with a bang, as Winkler ran back the opening kickoff for a touchdown. But the aroused Cougars came back to gain the momentum and make the game.

Mira Costa 54 South 12

Mira Costa bounced back to trounce the hapless Spartans as Jeff Colmer made two touchdowns and Ralph Gambin scored four times against his former teammates.

Mira Costa 12 Santa Monica 32

Behind quickly because of an inability to stop the MoHi fast backs, Mira Costa could not play its ball-control game. MC's wide open attack succeeded in producing only one touchdown.

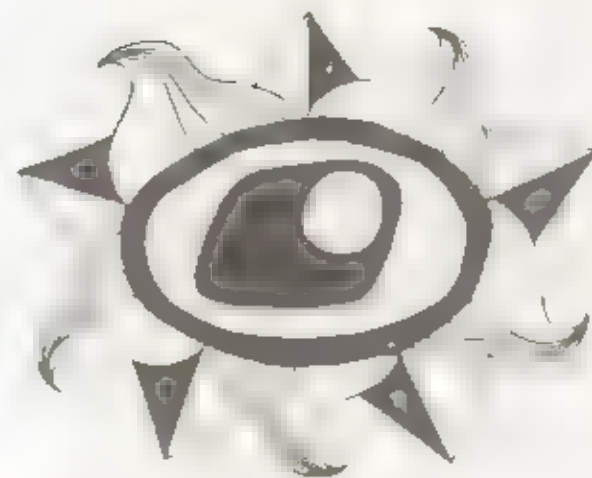

Mira Costa 12 Redondo 42

Again Mira Costa fell behind quickly on two long touchdown passes. The MC line, led by Fairless and Angle, played an excellent game, but the defensive backfield and the passing attack broke down.

Mira Costa 50 Inglewood 12

In the final game of the season, the Big Green Machine overran the Sentinals, as Gambin, Colmer, and Verry again did work horse jobs carrying the ball.

The 1958 JV team was an extension of the Varsity team, many of the future Mustang players. Under the guidance of Coach Carl Marshall, the team had a winning season of four wins and five losses. The defensive play by Vic Hays and Bob Jones led to the first victory of the season, 12-0 over Culver City. The defeat by Hawthorne was a 7-0 over Dominguez. The first loss of the season came against Northridge with the final Sixon touchdown being scored in the last minute of play. With an overall record of 4-5, the next two victories were over Hawthorne, 10-12, and South, 19-0. The final game of the season was a disaster, as the Mustangs were defeated to a 7-32 defeat.

Captains Kirk Russel and Bruce Fox headed the Bee football team as it met powerful competition and pulled off some upsets of its own, in a season of three wins, five losses and one tie.

The team showed its defensive strength when, as the underdog, it held the powerful Loyola team to one touchdown, for an upset even in defeat. The Bee's routed the Dominguez team, 31-0, in a game highlighted by Kirk Russel's 70-yard romp in the third quarter.

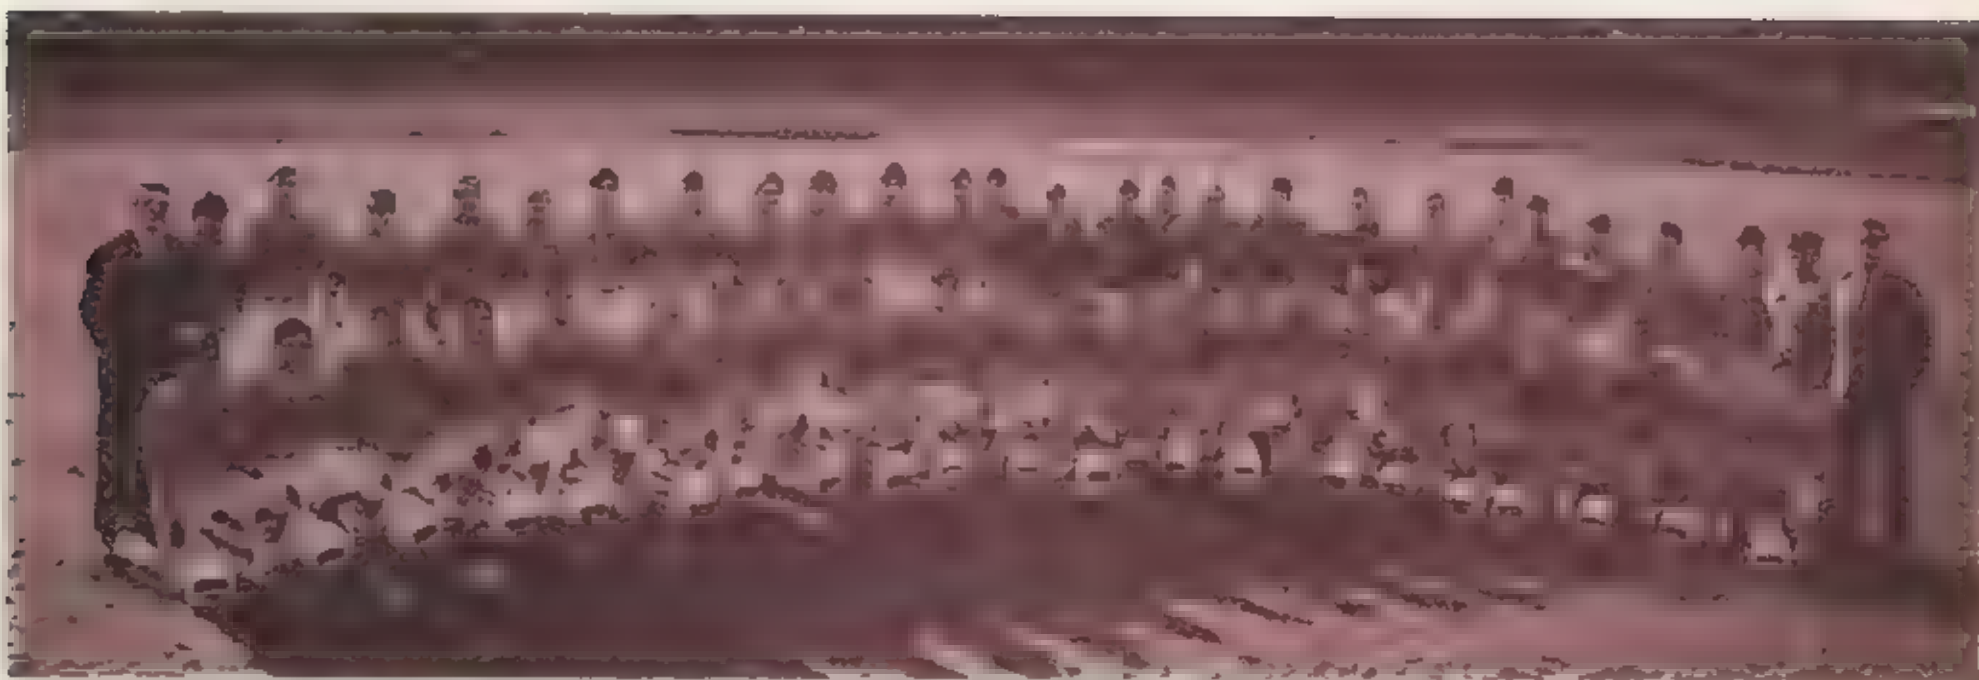

Kirk Watson was high scorer in the Hawthorne game, as the Bee's swept to a 27-20 victory. The season was climaxed in a thundering victory over Inglewood, as the backfield finally realized its potential, and united to lead the team to a 43-0 victory.

The Cee Colt team found itself in a rut during the past football season, with a record of only 2 wins and 7 losses. The main problem seemed to lie in the fact that the offense and defense never seemed to get together. The best game was that with South, even though it was one of the losses on the records of the team. Both teams played hard through the first 2 quarters, and the half found the two teams tied 6-6. Then, in the 4th quarter, the South team scored a big touchdown, to take the game with a score of 12-13.

The traditionally strong MiCoHi wrestlers ranked first in all competition entered this year. The matmen remained undefeated throughout the 1965-66 season. After winning the Mira Costa, San Valleys, and El Camino Invitational Tournaments, they carried away the Bay League Championship with nine men in first place positions. This is the greatest number of Bay League Champs in the history of the League.

There were many outstanding individual achievements this year. Captain Tony Edwards placed first in the Mira Costa Invitational, Bay League, the El Camino Tournament and had a dual meet record of eleven wins, no losses. Dan Costa also had a 11-0 win-loss record and placed first in the M. C. Invitational and Bay League. Ralph Gambin, Pete Medley, and Steve Verry captured first place honors in CIF competition to add the team to their third consecutive CIF Championship.

Championship

The Junior Varsity wrestlers started off the 1965-66 season slowly, but won their first two matches against Beverly Hills and Pioneer. The team ran into trouble when they faced Whittier and were beaten 28-16. They continued the season by winning more than they lost, and against good competition came out with a 8-3 win-loss record. The J. V.'s climaxed the season with an excellent performance at the Junior Varsity Championship Tournament. Five boys captured championship positions: Barry Malony-95 lbs., John Funk-115 lbs., Alvin Fletcher-123 lbs. Maurice Haga-141 lbs., and Kirk Russell-148 lbs.

The Frosh-Soph team, in its third year of existence, won six of its seven matches. There were over seventy boys who tried out for the team. The Frosh-Soph team was the starting place where the boys learned champion form. After spending two months learning how to wrestle the boys participated in seven dual matches.

Mustang Cagers

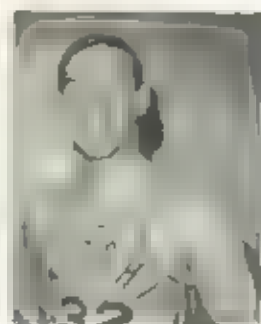

The 1965-66 Varsity basketball team bounced back in fine style from last year's rather disappointing fourth place finish, as it captured a tie for first place in a strong Bay League. This was Coach Erlinger's second League title in three years at Mira Costa and the school's sixth Championship in nine years. The roundballers also took second in both the Beverly Hills and Pacific Shores tournaments, and finished with an overall record of 21-5. For the first time in several years, the Mustangs abandoned their traditional fast-break style for a more deliberate tempo. The emphasis was on rebounding and defense, with an average height for the starting five of over 6'4". The Co-captains for the season were John Anderson and Tony Lettunich-John a fluid pivot man and Tony a bird-dog on defense. The team was led in scoring by Tom Egerer, whose fantastic moves on offense once again assured him of a berth on the all-League team. Doing consistent work on the boards were Kirk Kilgor and Rick Turton, who also contributed greatly on the scoreboard. The starting five, with crucial help from the bench, led Mira Costa to one of its finest years.

JV Team Acquires Skill

Micoñi's Junior Varsity basketball team placed fifth in Bay League this season, gaining valuable experience and preparing its members for future Varsity competition. The J.V. squad was made up primarily of freshmen with juniors Steve Parker, Josh Fredericks, and Frank Weitzel, who also formed part of the Varsity team, adding previously-proved skill to the cagers.

The J.V. record of five wins, eleven losses was brightened by the victory over Redondo in the second game with that school. In winning this, their most important game, the M.C. roundballers became the only team to defeat Redondo this season, with Parker, Fredericks and Weitzel instrumental in the victory. Mr. Holland, the J.V. coach, expressed confidence in the team's acquisition of both skill and speed this season.

Mira Costa's "B" basketball team, under the leadership of Coach Paul Howard and team captain Joe Applegate, placed an outstanding second in Bay League action this season, with an over-all record of 19 wins and 9 losses. Bill Parks, the team's most valuable player, and Kirk Andrews, 2nd leading scorer, sparked the team to a 114-57 victory over Inglewood, setting a school record for points scored in a game. Fine defensive play and a fast-break offense combined to make this a successful season.

With emphasis on teamwork and strategy, Coach Sumpter developed a group of individuals into a well-balanced C basketball squad. Led by team captain Jim Anderson, the C's finished 3rd in Bay League and compiled a 14-8 season record. In three exciting skirmishes, the team lost by only one point and emerged victorious in games with Aviation, Santa Monica, and Inglewood high schools. The South High contest proved most thrilling when the Mustangs added up 22 points in the final five minutes to defeat the Spartans 41-32.

Terrific team spirit and keen competitive attitudes led the 1965-66 D basketball team to a successful 13-3 season record. With invaluable experience gained through the D basketball program, the 1965-66 squad is assured of advancement into higher level teams. The D roundballers competed against other high school D teams and junior high all-star squads from the South Bay area. Dedicated Coach Ernie Hernandez helped his team make up for their lack of height by promoting energetic practices and ambitious outlooks.

Sac meets. Led by Chuck Williams, Rick Baker, and Mo Jimenez, the frosh also upset Redondo and went on to capture second in the League. The sophomore team, under the leadership of Larry Weisel, placed second at Mt. Sac and in Bay League.

J.V. and Varsity runners faced their toughest year of competition this season, compiling a 4-2 league record. Frank Baily was the head man on the J.V. team, which placed 3rd, Bay League. Top varsity men, Rich Braley, Rich Gainer, Brian Waterbury, Mike Blount, Tony Baker, John Sepulveda, Cal Stevens, and Tom Jackson had a disappointing season this year as a team, but, individual achievements were outstanding, as Rich Braley and John Sepulveda set new course records.

Dominate Bay League

Mustang goalie Kenny Gardiner, forward Mike Payne, and guard Doug Nisbet are honored by selection to First Team, All Bay League.

The 1965 Mustang Varsity Water Poloists maintained the fine tradition of past years by completing the Bay League season with an undefeated record, thus capturing the Bay League title for the fourth time in the last five years. They put forth a brilliant effort in the CIF play-offs, finishing in fifth position after defeating California in overtime in the first game, and losing the second to the eventual CIF Champs, Corona Del Mar.

As further proof of the outstanding ability of the 1965 Bay League Champs, nine members of the Varsity Team received Bay League awards. Kenny Gardiner, Doug Nisbet, and Mike Payne gained positions on the First Team, while Cary Havens, Greg Johnston, and Wayne Becking made the Second Team. Honorable Mention was awarded to Carl Dorland, Cliff Reed, and Tim Holton. High scorer Mike Payne took top honors as All Bay League Player of the Year.

Senior Mike Payne, Mustang center forward, was selected Player of the Year by the Bay League coaches.

The Mustang Bee Water Polo Team proved to be outstanding this year, tying for first place with Santa Monica. Both teams finished the season with a 7-1 win-loss record. This first place marked the Bee's fourth consecutive year as Bay League Champs. High scorers were Tom Rawlings, with 26 goals, and Steve Barger with 22. The Bee's also exhibited their strength in the Oxnard Bee Tournament, defeating Santa Monica and Warren in the first round. They lost to first place Oxnard in the final game, 7-3, thus placing second.

Bay League Titles

The Cee Water Poloists followed in the footsteps of the Varsity and Bee aquamen, also placing first in Bay League. Led by forward and high scorer Bob Witt, who scored forty-six goals in sixty-eight attempts, the Cee Team splashed to a 7-1 win-loss record, losing only to Redondo, 10-9, in the closing seconds. Other high scorers included Mark Kerwin and Andy Keene who racked up seventeen and sixteen goals respectively; Eddie Barker, who scored forty points, and Robie Mohle, who scored ten, also played on the Bee Team and proved to be powerful on both. This Bay League win is the third for the Cees in the last four years.

The purpose of the M.C. Girls' Athletic Association is three-fold: to cooperate with the Girls' P.E. Department in promoting good sportsmanship and the love of play for play's sake, to develop a high degree of physical ability among the girls, and to cooperate with the other departments of the school and the A.S. in developing a high type of citizenship. The G.A.A. members accomplish this primarily through intramural tournaments and sportsdays in volleyball, basketball, tennis, speed-a-way, and softball under the sponsorship of Mrs. Barbara Smith.

Campus Clubs Give

Wrestlers, swimmers, football players, although they compete vigorously for the school's attention during their respective seasons, they cooperate just as vigorously as members of the MAC Club. MAC Club provides a coordinating link between the faculty and the athletes, and functions as a service organization, helping at many of the tournaments, games, and meets held on campus throughout the year.

The club finances its activities by selling ads in sports programs and by sponsoring the annual Donkey Basketball Game, at which the club joins forces with the Pep Club to challenge the faculty. MAC Club members, chosen from the ranks of Costa's sportsmen on the basis of leadership and character as well as athletic skill, work to promote high standards of sportsmanship on campus.

MC Club is a service club for sports-minded girls. It awards members 5 points for each sport girls who have earned a total of forty-five points in C.A.A. activities. Under the direction of Miss J. Ann Miller, sponsor, and Diana Dalton, President, the club organized several activities. The girls welcomed new members at a tea at a surprise concert given at the school.

To finance their annual scholarship party sold bars disguised as Santa Claus bars and talked with the business community. MC Club girls gave enthusiastic support to the girls' League by its annual Christmas bazaar. Under the leadership of cooperation between the sports and socials, the juniors emerged victorious and this were dinner guests of the sports as reward. This year the club also sponsored a volleyball sportsnight each Wednesday night which offered recreation for everyone interested.

Capture Bay League Title

Micohi's Varsity Aquamen upheld their winning record this year with their second Bay League Title. Experience as well as ability keynoted the success of the team, as eight of the toughest lettermen were seniors. The team showed its capabilities early, placing fifth in CIF Relays. In league competition the Mustang's top rivals, Santa Monica, proved to be a small threat as MC swimmers trounced them, 56-39. Outstanding performances by butterflyer Greg Gilholm and freestyler Cliff Reed were greatly responsible for this victory. Seniors Ken Gardiner, Steve Hecq, Doug Nisbet, Mike Payne, and Dana Wynns, Junior Wayne Becking, and Freshman Ron Shigaki, also sparked the Mustangs throughout the season. Although the strength of the team rested primarily in the upper-classmen, the outstanding swimmer was sophomore Jack Underwood, who placed first in CIF backstroke as a Freshman. Diver Greg Bryan also contributed to MC's victorious season by capturing his fourth league first in his four years at Mira Costa, remaining undefeated in dual competition.

Led by senior Jim Lamb, they defeated Santa Monica early in the season by a 3-point win; they gathered many other such tight scores throughout the season. Much of the Bee's strength was contributed by tenth graders, especially by breaststroker Jim Hill, freestyler Dennis Long, and the versatile Tom Rawlings.

The Mustangs Cee Swim Team, according to coach Larry Bark, was the strongest Micohi has ever known, primarily due to the large number of skilled ninth graders. Paced by Ron Shigaki and other outstanding Freshmen Matt Harrison, Bob Witt, Andy Keene, Stu Lee, and Jess Reed, the Cee watermen swam to victory in the CIF 4x50 backstroke relay and placed second overall in the CIF Relays. They also relied heavily on Juniors Carl Dorland and Robie Mohle for their victorious season.

Track Team

Mira Costa's Track and Field team spent many fall and winter afternoons along the shoreline pacing off the distance from El Porto to King Harbor, as they built up their endurance in preparation for an outstanding season. Later, under Coaches Ed Austin and Carl Mersola, sprinters worked on quick get-aways from the blocks, and field enthusiasts perfected their skills.

The first competition met by the powerful Mustang cindermen was expected to be difficult, but showing their strength and ability, Mira Costa's 100 trackmen took Rolling Hills by a large margin. The win not only demonstrated great team ability, but also proved that MiCoHi had many outstanding individuals, such as senior Dan Kenney, who set a new school high jump record of 6 feet 4 and a quarter inches; senior Rich Gainer, who pole vaulted 13 feet 6 inches; junior Steve Verry, who returned to shot put this year after taking a second place in CIF last year, junior Frank Bailey, who ran the quarter mile in 53.2; and sophomore Cal Stevens, who ran the half mile in 2:03.

The Bee Track team followed the swift steps of the Varsity this year, as many individual records in sprinting and distance racing were set. Top sprinters, John Featherstone, Phil Kaufman, Bob Richmond, and Tim Howell led the tracksters to victory. The Bee distance squad's main strength was in the ability of Tony Baker, who was responsible for many firsts and for team points. Dan Woolley, who as a freshman last year set a school mark, put the shot again this year, and contributed numerous first place points.

The Cee Track team, enjoying another season of strength and endurance, helped the Mustangs stay on top in dual meets this year. Clay Shepherd was a consistent sprinter, while Eric Cole progressed into an outstanding hurdler. Pete Pfeiffer, a freshman, broad jumped 17 feet seven and one quarter inches. And the team of Downs, Cole, Baker, and Jackson set a Mira Costa Cee mile relay record of 3:41.3. Not only did the Cee cinderman develop individual talents, but they also learned the importance of team effort and co-operation.

Develop Skills Practice

This year Micohi's Varsity Tennis Team gained most of its strength from the ranks of seniors, five of whom were returning lettermen. Returning from a successful season in their junior year, Dan Stanley, Thor Devenish, Richard Strub, and Captain Jan Mower once again turned in outstanding performances in both league and non-league matches. The racketmen demonstrated their ability early by defeating their first two opponents, Aviation and Culver City, each by scores of 4-3. Under coaches Brigham, Scott, and Verner, the Mustang Varsity team finished the season very successfully.

The Junior Varsity tennis players, this year comprised primarily of underclassmen, also put forth an impressive effort in their matches. They gained valuable experience which will be especially useful next season, as many of the Varsity men will be leaving.

With continued outstanding pitching and hitting, the M.C. Varsity baseball team put in another spirited season. Coaches Couper and Rhodes counted on the back-up of a strong outfield and an alert infield. Three-year letterman Gary Dwyer added his all-round excellence to the team and Steve Smith brought his pitching skills back this year, after pitching a no-hitter in 1965. Steve Webb, last year's Bay League leader in earned run averages, returned with a strong arm, as did Mike Nichols, last year's second leading hitter, to make a strong Mustang team.

With consistency and hard work, the 1966 J.V. baseball team completed a winning season. Coached by Larry Anderson, the team composed of juniors, sophomores and some promising new freshmen, played a hard season.

The J.V. team had an outstanding pitching staff in Ted Rahn, Bill Monette, and Tim Dayen. As catcher, Brian Miller skillfully handled the hurlers. At 1st base, freshman John Sain showed much promise, as did freshman Berry Goodwin in left field. On second was Steve Ganoway, and the third base position was filled by Brent Spenser. While Blair Ota and Jim Cook competed for the short stop position, the consistency of Bruce Fox gave him the center field job. Completing the starting line-up was Kent Scanlon in right field.

Coaches Rhodes and Cooper direct from the dugout.

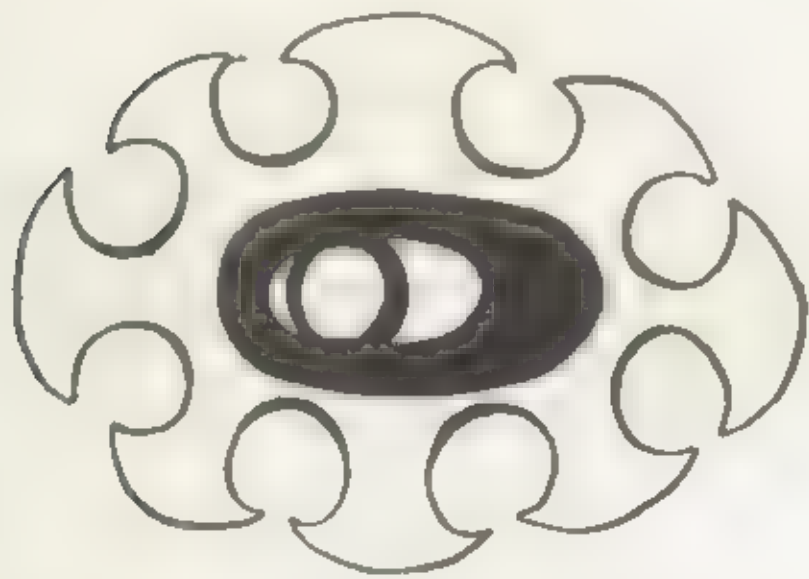

Show Potential

Micohi's freshman baseball team brought new prospects to the baseball scene this year. The team, created to instruct and develop the talents of new players, competed in a regular schedule against other Bay League teams.

Coached this year by Mr. William Cooper and Mr. John Rhodes, the frosh team actively contributed to Mira Costa's winning tradition. Freshman competition provided a valuable training ground for skills and sportsmanship, while producing players of future varsity potential.

Ted Rahn fires away

"Thank You" from the Class of '66

We, the Class of 1966, are deeply indebted to the Mira Costa faculty and administration for our four years of high school. Not only have these four years been ones of mental growth, but also ones of emotional and social growth. We can remember when we were Freshmen, a little awed at all high school offered. We gained our first experience as real leaders in student government, being led by President John Anderson, Vice-President Candy Cameron, Secretary Pam Washburn, and Treasurer Nancy Beer. We learned self-sufficiency by raising funds through a magazine drive, and broadened our interest by joining sports teams and various clubs.

We became a little more sophisticated as Sophomores, and earned our money by selling "candybulbs" and "lightbars." Our class leaders that year were Reine Monroe, President; Doug Richardson, Vice-President; Pam Washburn, Secretary; and Laurie Saunders, Treasurer. Many girls became members of Drill Team, and the boys went from Cees to Bees. Hoofprints selected Jane Edgerton as Miss Hoofprints.

Our overall growth gave us upper-classmen privileges in the Fall of '64. As Juniors we received class rings, and put on the play "Inherit the Wind." We proved our social growth as we planned and sponsored the Jr.-Sr. Prom at El Camino. Two members of our class were selected as A.F.S. finalists — Craig Pine, who was sent to Sweden, and John Anderson, and Paula Burnett was elected Pacific Shores Queen. Our classmates were involved with Pep Club, La Vista, Girls' and Boys' Leagues, and Hoofprints, forming an integral part of Student Body organization. We were led by Mike Fairless, President; Gordon Harter, Vice-President; Sandy Lariviere, Secretary; and Peggy Bordelon, Treasurer. We felt sadness at the retirement of our Principal, Mr. Waller.

Our final year at Mira Costa began under the leadership of Greg Bryan, President; Candy Cameron, Vice-President; Jane Edgerton, Secretary; Sandy Lariviere, Treasurer; and Maurice Haeberlin, Historian. Our senior year was filled with many exciting events. The Varsity Sweetheart Dance was highlighted by the selection of the court, sweetheart Penny Todd, and her princesses Tricia Watson, and Jane Edgerton. Our Senior Play, "Teahouse of the August Moon" was most successful, and the Coronation Ball was unique in that two Queens were elected, Linda Steele, and Paula Burnett, with King Mike Fairless. We grew culturally by our close association with A.F.S. students Sue Hoare from England, and Bert Sundberg from Sweden. We were kept busy right up to the day of graduation — buying activity cards, ordering announcements, getting measured for caps and gowns, purchasing a painting for the library, and attending the Senior Mother's Tea. We were honored by the number of scholarship recipients and sealbearers in our class, as well as by the number of other award-winners. We are grateful and honored to have graduated under the leadership of Principal Carl Fisher. We hope our further education and future jobs reflect the training and growth we have received here.

This Is That

' Damned if we do or don't . . . '

The Year Was. . .

ent their champion rowing am to the International urf Festival.

The heat of the California sun gleaming
wetly from shimmering, rain-soaked grass
The warmth of a smile caught in passing in a crowded corridor

The brilliance of discovery, the golden ray of hope
The thrill of the hunt at the edge of the unknown
The redemptive glow of a single moment
The quiet joy of a simple thing

The shadow on the warm sand, cast by a mustang running swiftly toward the sea.
